AGUINALDO IN LIMBO

The Elusive Filipino Leader is Captured by Funston and is Now in Manila.

CAUSES JOY IN WASHINGTON

It is the Belief That the Taking of the War Chieftain Will End All Armed Resistance in the Philippine Archipelago Very Soon.

Manila, March 28.—Aguinaldo, who was captured by General Funston and brought to Manila on the United States gunboat Vicksburg, was brought ashore at 3:10 p. m. today and taken before General MacArthur at the Malacanang palace.

He talked freely, but seemed ignorant concerning recent events.

He appeared to be in good health and was even cheerful.

He lunched with the officers of General MacArthur's staff and is now a prisoner in General MacArthur's palace.

Aguinaldo's capture was attended with considerable difficulty, an insurgent major being killed at the time of the event. Twenty rifles and a number of important papers were captured.

OFFICIAL REPORTS.

Washington, March 28.—The press reports of the capture of Aguinaldo by General Funston were confirmed today by General MacArthur, at Manila, in the following cablegram to Adjutant General Corbin:

"General Funston has just returned from expedition to Palanan, province of Isabella, where he captured Aguinaldo, who is now in my possession at Malacanan. Particulars later."

Malacanan is General MacArthur's headquarters and residence in Manila.

Secretary Root informed a representative of the Associated Press this morning that he can make no statement yet as to the disposition of Aguinaldo.

He supposes that he will be treated as other prominent insurgents who have been captured.

When asked if Funston would be rewarded by promotion for his daring work, the secretary said that question had not yet been considered.

Admiral Remey, at Manila, has cabled the navy department as follows:

"Cavite, March 28.—Bureau Navigation, Washington: Vicksburg sailed 8th with General Funston and eighty-three Maccabebees aboard, expedition to capture Aguinaldo. Returned today. Aguinaldo and three staff officers captured and delivered to custody of General MacArthur.

"Remey."

MUCH JOY IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, March 28.—The news of General Aguinaldo's capture by General Funston was received everywhere in official circles with intense gratification, but, perhaps, nowhere did it create more satisfaction than at the white house. The first official news to reach the executive mansion was General MacArthur's dispatch announcing the capture, which came about midnight last night. This morning the president also saw Admiral Remy's cablegram and the press dispatches.

The president naturally is very much gratified that the chief mover in the insurrection has at last been taken.

HAD PICKED FUNSTON.

It has been the opinion of the military authorities for a long time that Aguinaldo was doing more than all the other agencies combined to keep the rebellion in the Philippines alive and every energy was directed to compass his capture. It is rather a remarkable tribute to the daring and resourcefulness of General Funston that long before he made the attempt he was selected by the authorities here as the officer who might achieve it. It was the intention of General Funston some time ago to return to the United States, but by direction of the war department he was detained in the Philippines in the hope that just such a contingency as did arise should give him the opportunity to test his prowess.

Both the president and war department were fully informed of the trap laid to capture the insurgent chief and the result of the expedition has been anxiously awaited for several days.

VITAL QUESTIONS RAISED.

Several interesting and, indeed, vital questions are raised by Aguinaldo's capture. If the insurrection now collapses, as it is hoped it will, it may not be necessary to enlist the full strength of the army provided for in the army reorganization bill. There also is the question of the disposition to be made of the insurgent chief. But it is too early yet for the authorities to decide these questions. There also is much speculation as to the reward which General Funston may receive for his work. It is considered not improbable that his reward will be a commission in the regular establishment.

In cabinet circles General Funston's exploit was referred to in laudatory terms and the probable effect it will have on the termination of hostilities in the Philippines is being generally discussed.

Secretary Long expressed the prevailing sentiment. He naturally was much gratified at the official confirmation of Aguinaldo's capture and of the assistance that the navy had been able to render General Funston in facilitating his exploits.

GOOD MORAL EFFECT.

The capture itself was of much importance, he said, but he suggested that the moral effect probably would count quite as much as the brilliancy of the exploit. He considered it one of the most significant features of the affair that the natives themselves had been instrumental in bringing about the capture. They had made up a considerable part of Funston's force and their willingness to go into the heart of Aguinaldo's stronghold indicated that in their own minds they felt that there was no longer any real danger to be apprehended from Aguinaldo's strength.

That such a sentiment had obtained hold among the Filipinos was, in the judgment of Secretary Long, a significant evidence that the insurrection had lost its vitality among the people themselves.

To this sentiment was now added the loss of the ostensible head of the insurrectionary movement, which would doubtless exert far-reaching influence upon the native mind.

The secretary said he presumed that Aguinaldo would be held as a prisoner of war.

"What will be done to him," Mr. Long was asked.

SHOULD BE SPANKED.

"It is a little early to say," responded the secretary, and then, after a pause, he added, smilingly:

"I should say that he should be spanked with a shingle."

It was suggested to the secretary that as a prisoner of war who has rebelled against the authority of the United States, it might be incumbent under military procedure to deal with Aguinaldo by those rigorous steps usual to warfare.

But Mr. Long shook his head and remarked that that was hardly the way we were in the habit of doing things. He was more inclined to his first view that the noted prisoner should be "well spanked."

This idea as to the treatment to be accorded Aguinaldo seems to be the one most generally accepted among officials, and while the suggestion of "spanking" is used in a figurative sense there is no suggestion in any quarter that he will meet with that rigorous punishment at times admin-

DEADLOCK ENDED

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE HAS ELECTED SENATORS.

GOVERNOR DIETRICH IS ONE

J. H. MILLARD, AN OMAHA MAN, IS THE OTHER.

RESULT WAS A COMPROMISE

LEADING CANDIDATES HAD TO WITHDRAW.

Lincoln, March 28.—J. H. Millard, of Omaha, and Gov. Charles H. Dietrich, of Hastings, who were nominated by the republican caucus this morning for the long and short term United States senatorships respectively, were elected by the joint session of the legislature at noon.

Each received seventy-two votes—the entire republican strength.

Mr. Millard was assigned the seat of Senator Thurston, while Governor Dietrich is the successor of the late Senator Hayward.

Repeated caucuses and a daily ballot for two months and a half tells the story of the struggle for the two vacant seats of Nebraska in the United States senate. When the republican caucus adjourned late last night the deadlock apparently was as firm as ever. On reassembling this morning the men who had probably prevented a nomination several days ago of D. E. Thompson began going over to Crounse, but could not muster enough votes to cause a solution of the difficulty. Mr. Thompson finally arose and announced his decision to withdraw from the contest for the short term, and suggested that his followers take up Governor Dietrich.

Immediately Edward Rosewater, of Omaha, candidate for the long term, announced his withdrawal and suggested to his friends the name of Mr. Millard. Meikeljohn also withdrew.

Two ballots were then taken. On the first Governor Dietrich received sixty-seven votes and his nomination was made unanimously. Crounse received thirty-five and Millard thirty-nine. Before the second ballot was half finished several changes were made to Millard and Crounse finally withdrew before the completion of the vote. Millard's nomination was declared unanimously.

Joseph H. Millard and Charles H. Dietrich are both bankers. Neither has been prominent in politics until within the last year.

Senator-elect Millard was born in Hamilton, Canada, in 1836. He came to Nebraska in 1856 and has resided since then in Omaha. He was the founder of the Omaha National bank, of which institution he is still the president. He was for many years a director of the Union Pacific railroad, but has not been connected with the road under the reorganization. He has never held a public office.

Charles H. Dietrich, elected for the short term, is governor of Nebraska and president of the German National bank of Hastings. He was born at Aurora, Ill., in 1853, and came to this state in 1887. Prior to his nomination for governor on the republican ticket last year he had never been in politics.

Governor Dietrich's election to the senate will raise Lieutenant Governor Savage to the office of governor, which the former will vacate on his qualification as senator.

TRACTION STRIKE AVERTED.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 28.—There will be no strike on the Monongahela traction lines for the present, at least. This much was decided at a meeting held at 2 o'clock this morning. National President Mahon, Chairman Grundy, of the United Labor league, and other leaders present counselled delay and it was finally decided to postpone action until the return from the south of W. L. Mellon, president of the Monongahela lines, when a committee will place the grievances before him and request relief. President Mahon expressed himself pleased with the result of the meeting, which was, he said, the best way out of a disagreeable tangle.

COUNTESS GETS DIVORCE.

London, March 28.—The Countess Russell was granted a divorce today upon the ground of the alleged bigamy and adultery of the earl of Russell with Mrs. Somerville. The suit was not defended. John Francis Stanly, Earl Russell, was married to Mollie Somerville, daughter of the late George Cooke, of Combernald, Scotland, on April 15, 1900, in Reno, Nevada. They had been living for several months previously in Nevada, where both had obtained decrees of divorce. Earl Russell obtained a divorce from Countess Russell on the ground of desertion.

HAD TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Cape Town, March 28.—The Norwegian bark Andromeda, from Glasgow, has landed a part of the crew of the Psyche, which foundered January 17. The rescued sailors were thirty days in an open boat and subsisted upon shark and albatross. Two of the members of the crew perished as a result of the exposure and the remainder were nearly dead when rescued. The Psyche's mate and five men who put to sea in the second boat are still missing.

WILL START WEEKLY PAPER

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS TO HAVE AN ORGAN.

Will Be Called the Fort Wayne Socialist and Expects to Figure in City Campaign.

It is learned tha within a very short time the social democrats of Fort Wayne expect to launch a new weekly newspaper to advocate the doctrines of that political party.

The plan is yet in embryo, but within the past few days the preliminary arrangements have been undertaken with vigor and the new organ is expected to appear in time to take a lively part in the city campaign in the support of the municipal ticket recently nominated by the social democrats. This is headed by M. H. Wefel as the nominee for mayor.

The new paper will, it is said, be called the Fort Wayne Socialist, and it will be issued from one of the printing establishments already in the city. The members of the social democracy believe the new organ will command from the first a support healthy enough to insure its stability. The question of editorial management will probably result in the selection of H. H. Haines for that position.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

There were four offenders represented at police court this morning. Three of them were present in person and the fourth had his $11 on tap. The latter was one Samuel Brown, who became involv d in a squabble with Alfred Keck, on Columbia street. Both had been drinking and when they started to make a rough house of Gebert's saloon the wagon was called. They would have got away all right then had they not renewed hostilities in the presence of the officers. At court Keck insisted that he was not drunk and that he had simply defended himself. The mayor fined him $1 and suspended judgment.

Roy Collins, aged 14, and Alanson Conn, aged 16, were arrested yesterday afternoon for drunkenness. They said their home is at Garrett and that they had come to town to have a good time. They were refused drinks at several places on Columbia street and wanted to clean out the places because of the refusal. They are both little fellows and don't look as though they could clean out spittoons. The mayor asked them where they got their liquor and they said they did not know the names of the places, but could find them. They were fined $5 each and were told that if they could find the places where they got loaded that perhaps the fine might be suspended. They went out with Officer Coling to hunt up the booze emporiums where they got full and if they are successful they will be held as witnesses against the offending saloonkeepers.

Col. R. S. Robertson reports the finding of a pocketbook containing money and papers which the owner can have upon proper identification.

The fire department was called to No. 44 Pritchard street last night, where a sofa had mysteriously caught fire. There was no damage.

Watchman Laughlin last night discovered a fire in the rear of the trading stamp store. A few buckets of water extinguished the blaze and the department was not called.

LORD SALISBURY ILL.

London, March 28.—Lord Salisbury's cold has developed into a slight influenza, but he is doing well and hopes to go to the Riviera next week.

J. F. Hoskins, representing the Diamond mine, of Oregon, has disposed of nearly 5,000 shares of stock during the past two days.

PAW OF THE BEAR

HAS NOT BEEN PUSHED INTO KOREAN AFFAIRS.

A DISCLAIMER PUT FORTH

BY RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON.

COUNT CASSINI SEES HAY

MANCHURIAN TREATY ONLY A MODUS VIVENDI.

Washington, March 28.—The Russian authorities have given definite and positive assurances to the state department that the dismissal of McLevy Brown, the high official of the Korean government, was not due in anyway to Russian influence.

The Russian ambassador, Count Casini, had an extended conference with Secretary Hay today. The ambassador was without information as to what had been done as the Manchurian agreement. Although the general question of China was gone over, yet the chief purpose of the visit was to clear up the reports that Russia had been instrumental in the removal of Mr. Brown.

Count Casini's visit resulted in the fullest assurance that the affair is not one in which Russia had been concerned, and that it was purely a matter of the domestic affairs of Korea, which the Korean officials had carried out according to their own desires.

During the course of the interview there was a further reference to Russia's purpose in Manchuria. This was on precisely the same lines as the ambassador had before laid down, but with more particularity. For instance it was made to appear that this particular agreement between Russia and China is really nothing more than a "modus vivendi." It is purely temporary in character according to the Russian contention.

The purpose is, according to that contention, to restore law and order under Chinese authority in Manchuria and provide for the gradual withdrawal of the Russia troops.

Secretary Hay's callers today also included Lord Pauncefote, and the German ambassador, and the Japanese minister, all of whom were concerned in the status of Chinese affairs, and particularly the final outcome of the Manchurian question. Little definite additional information was developed.

OFFERS THE PLACE TO KNOX

PITTSBURGER IS TENDERED ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP.

Cabinet Portfolio Held Out by the President at an Interview—Acceptance Not Made.

Washington, March 28.—P. C. Knox, of Pittsburg, to whom the president has decided to offer the attorney generalship, arrived at the white house about noon today.

He was with the president for over an hour. After he left the white house the following official statement was made:

"The president has invited Mr. Knox to accept the office of attorney general. Mr. Knox has not yet signified his acceptance and will not until after his return home."

Mr. Knox will return to Pittsburg today.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

The first installment of the firemen's fight cases will be heard by Justice France this afternoon. It develops that Hazel Wright, who filed the affidavits, knows nothing about the fight and did not see it. She will be brought into court and asked to explain her penchant for filing affidavits.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan left this morning for Plainfield, having in charge Charles Farra who will do a term in the reform school.

In the case of William Ryan vs. the Phoenix Accident and Sick Benefit association, the jury this morning returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $59.20. The testimony was interesting and at times very ludicrous.

Superintendent Young will hold an examination of teachers in the Elektron building next Saturday.

Guy Colerick has filed his bond as a notary public.

The case of Martin vs. Banet has been appealed from France's court to the circuit court.

The Retail Grocers' association will hold a meeting this evening in the assembly room of the court house.

The sheriff's office has been painted a bright green. This was done out of respect for Deputy Sheriff Ryan.

NEW TRIALS ARE GRANTED

POWERS AND HOWARD CASES TO BE REOPENED.

Kentucky Court of Appeals Sets Aside Convictions of Men Charged With Gobel Murder.

Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—The court of appeals today granted a new trial to Caleb Powers and James Howard, sentenced in the lower court to life imprisonment and death, respectively, in connection with the shooting in February, 1900, of Governor William Goebel.

In the Howard case the entire court concurred, but in the Powers decision Judges Hobson, Painter and White dissented.

The decision in the Powers case holds the Taylor pardon invalid, but orders a new trial on the ground of erroneous instructions to the jury and admission of incompetent testimony.

The Howard case is reversed because of erroneous instructions, incompetent evidence admitted in the trial and other minor points.

WAR WILL GO ON

DESPITE THE CAPTURE OF AGUINALDO.

WHAT AGONCILLO SAYS OF IT

DOES NOT BELIEVE REPORT FROM MANILA.

A NEW LEADER TO BE CHOSEN

FILIPINOS, HE SAYS, WILL HAVE INDEPENDENCE.

Paris, March 28.—A representative of the Associated Press today communicated to Agoncillo, the Filipino agent, the news of the capture of Aguinaldo. Agoncillo, who occupies a nicely furnished apartment in a house in a central Paris street, apparently surrounded by every comfort, laughed and said:

"I do not believe it. I have received nothing by cable and until I receive confirmatory advices I shall continue to ignore the news."

Asked, if the announcement was true, what effect he thought it would have on the insurrection, Agoncillo replied emphatically:

"None, except the loss of a true patriot and a clever general. The feeling of the Philippine people and their determination to fight out the struggle for independence will remain unshakable.

"I received a cablegram only yesterday which convinced me that the Philippine leaders have not modified their persistent attitude regarding the continuance of the war.

"Whatever disaffections may have taken place in favor of the Americans, the Philippine people as a whole are resolved to accept nothing short of independence."

When Agoncillo was asked what effect the capture of Aguinaldo would have on the campaign he said a council of the leading Filipinos would simply meet and elect another military chief to prosecute the war, adding that even if Aguinaldo and his general staff were all captured many able generals remain.

Agoncillo was asked who was likely to be chosen to succeed Aguinaldo and said he thought General Alejandrino might be selected, as he was a clever military leader and enjoyed the confidence of the people.

In reply to a question of the report of the Associated Press as to whether the Filipinos had enough money to continue the war indefinitely, Agoncillo smiled and replied:

"That is our affair."

BRONCHITIS

We Know is Hard to Control.

Our Vinol is Making a Wonderful Record in Curing This Dangerous Disease.

CALL AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT IT.

Here is a letter that has just come to our attention. It will interest people suffering from bronchial troubles. It is from Mr. Geo. W. Brown, of So. Hanover, N. H., and reads as follows:

"I have suffered with bronchial troubles for over a year; tried two doctors and have taken three or four kinds of medicine, none of which did me any good. At times I was so hoarse I could not speak. Then I heard of Vinol. After taking three bottles of it my voice has perfectly returned to me. I can see that in a short time I will be all right. When I began to take it I was very weak, but it has built me up and given me a good appetite."

This is what Vinol always does. This is the way Vinol accomplishes its mission of doing good.

Vinol, as we wish every one to know, owes its power of accomplishing the cures that it effects to the fact that it contains the most wonderful medicinal elements known to science for the cure of all wasting diseases, as well as being in itself a marvelous tonic. These medicinal properties exist and have heretofore been found only in cod-liver oil. Vinol contains these elements. For by a scientific process the necessary curative properties of the cod-liver oil have been separated from the fat and grease which formerly made cod-liver oil preparations so objectionable.

As long as Vinol does not contain any of the vile smelling oil, and is prepared by combining the sought-after properties with a delicate table wine, it is a most delicious and palatable preparation.

We know of what we speak when we recommend Vinol, and because we do know that Vinol does all we claim for it, we unhesitatingly endorse it, and guarantee at any time to refund the money paid for the remedy if you are not satisfied it will do all we claim for it.

istered to the arch-head of an insurrection.

WAR DEPARTMENT ELATED.

Particularly in the war department did the capture of Aguinaldo cause discussion among the officials. As to the disposition to be made of the famous prisoners some of the army officers expressed the opinion that it would prove troublesome. Secretary Root said he remembered the capture of Jefferson Davis; also the arrest of William M. Tweed, both of which embarrassed the authorities. The secretary desired further advices from General MacArthur before discussing the matter in great detail.

He would say little or nothing about the disposition of Aguinaldo further than that he probably would be treated the same as other high officers of the insurgents who have been taken by the Americans in the prosecution of the war.

Army officers who have been in the Philippines were very much interested in the news and some of them discussed the military-judicial features of the case. It was pointed out that Aguinaldo could be held as a prisoner of war until the close of the war. Another phase of the question relating to the proclamations and orders of Aguinaldo tending to secure the assasination and massacre of Americans, European and friendly Filipinos without regard to their activity in the prosecution of the war on the insurgents, was discussed.

COULD CLAIM NO IMMUNITY.

It was said that in case these proclamations and orders could be proven Aguinaldo would be subject to a trial by a military commission for violation of the rules of war and he could not claim immunity, under the ordinary conduct of war.

A study of the latest atlas of the Philippine archipelago just issued by the coast survey, shows that the province of Isabella is in the extreme northern portion of the island of Luzon. Palanan is a town on the eastern coast of Isabella province, situated on a river somewhat inland, which flows into the gulf of Palanan. Between the coast and the Rio Grande, which flows northward through northern Luzon is the Sierre Mardas mountains, a coast range which is almost impassible. The Palanan and the coast towns where Aguinaldo has been hiding could only be reached by sea.

LIFE HISTORY OF AGUINALDO.

Emilio Aguinaldo, known simply by that name until the war, when he adopted the more imposing title of Senor Don Emilio Aguinaldo y Faury, was born in a nipa hut in the island of Luzon, in the old town of Cavite, near Manila, in 1872. Like himself, his father was a native of the Philippines, of full Malay blood.

When, a quarter of a century ago, the hatred of the natives of the islands for the power that held them under mistrule and oppression began to take form in slumbering revolt, the Tagalo boy was toddling about the hut which was his birthplace and none knew that he was destined to make the name of Aguinaldo known as that of the leader of his people.

The ordinary Talaglo boy's life is devoid of incident from the time he can walk until he marries, which may be as early as sixteen, when he is regarded as a man. Not so with Aguinaldo. His father was a native chief—an Orang Malayu—that is, a Malay with literary knowledge and having a religion and a form of culture In this way he was distinguished from the Orang Beuna, the Malay of the soil, and from the Orang Laut, the Malay of the sea.

The chief had ambitions for his son, so, while other Tagalo boys had nothing to do or think of but eating and sleeping, and in most cases had inordinate fondness for both, Emilio Aguinaldo was taught there was something more in store for him in life—that he was to have a career—to be a chief like his father, or perhaps greater.

EMILIO TRAINED FOR CHIEF.

So when Emilio was ten years old, having reached the age when he could wear clothes with fitting dignity, his father gave him to the Spanish priests in Manila to be educated. The priests were glad to get him and train him in Spanish ways of thinking, hoping to use his influence later in behalf of Spain among the Tagalos. He was kept in the schools at Manila a short time, then sent to Madrid to be educated for the priesthood.

In Manila the Tagalo boy had begun to be acquainted with the system by which the Spanish officials oppressed the natives. At Madrid he saw more, and learned how Spain oppressed and plundered all its colonies. For two years or more he kept on studying Latin and other subjects prescribed in the course of training for priests, then surprised his tutors by telling them he did not wish to be a priest. He had determined to become a soldier.

PREFERS SWORD TO COWL.

Opposition was of no avail. A soldier he would be, and nothing else. Unwillingly his masters took from his shoulders the gown of the novitiate and invested them in the uniform of the military. Soon after this Emilio Aguinaldo was drafted into one o fthe native regiments of Luzon and became a subaltern in his native land, dominated by Spanish captains and field officers—a part of the machinery employed in the oppression of his own people.

Serving quietly as a minor officer in the Spanish ranks, he did not forget the dreams of his boyhood that at some time he should be a leader among the Tagalos. He knew his superiors were plunderers of their own government at Madrid. He saw that the Malay paid the taxes, the resident officials taking one-third of it and sending the remaining two-thirds to Madrid. He knew that the clergy received tithes from the Malay, but that church and clergy alike were for the Spanish.

Taciturn, morose, keen to observe and quick to resent—sullen and vindictive, but silent—he watched and waited and served on in the army of Spain. In 1896 he decided to wait no longer. He was then 24 years old and had been trained for years as a soldier. He decided to organize a revolt against Spain among the native soldiers serving with the Spanish army, and began in his own regiment. Lieutenant Alexandro, a brother Malay, became his associate in the movement. The plot was developed in secret and a plan of action agreed on.

LEADS HIS FIRST REVOLT.

This plan was announced to Spain, when, early one morning, every Spanish officer in the regiment was shot down on the parade ground, except a few insignificant lieutenants, and the Malay soldiers in the regiment hid in the tangled depths of the savannas—the broad swamps through which the soldiers of the American army have been fighting their way against this same leader of the Malays.

This was the beginning of the career of Emilio Aguinaldo on his own account as a soldier and a leader. He organized an army of between 4,000 and 5,000 natives, established headquarters, and began to make for the Spanish residents a reign of terror. On every Spaniard he was ready to vent the hatred for Spain that had been growing within him for fifteen years. He had seen the ears of his own people cut off by Spaniards who called themselves Christians. He, in turn, chopped off Spanish heads. He had seen the priests bless Spanish soldiers setting out on murderous missions against his own people, and without scruple assassinated priests and soldiers alike, only that they were Spanish. He followed out the lessons he had learned in a long training.

PRICE PUT ON HIS HEAD.

Bassillio Augusti y Davila was the political governor of the Philippine islands at that time. Rivera was captain general. Augusti offered $20,000 for the head of Aguinaldo. The answer he received to this tender was a note from the rebel leader himself:

"I need the sum you offer much and will deliver the head myself."

Augusti laughed. Ten days later he met Aguinaldo. He paid him $20,000, but did not receive the head.

The time for the meeting was a stormy night—a typhoon raging. Augusti sat in his palace engaged on a report of the condition of the island. A priest passed the sentinels at the entrance to the palace and undisturbed entered Augusti's room. He stopped just back of that official's chair with the words: "Peace be with you, my son."

When Augusti, surprised, had turned his head, the priest's mantle was dropped, and there stood Aguinaldo, in his hand a twenty-inch bolo, the terrible knife of the Malay.

"I have brought the head of Aguinaldo," said the rebel, thumbing the edge of his blade, "and I claim the reward. Hasten, else I shall have to expedite matters."

Augusti had no alternative. He opened his desk and took from it $20,000 in gold, which he gave to Aguinaldo. The latter in turn handed him a receipt, counted the money, walked backward to the door and bolted. A pistol bullet from the weapon of the enraged Augusti cut the hair over Aguinaldo's temple, but he escaped unscathed.

TAKES BRIBE TO GO AWAY.

A short time after this Captain General Polavieja offered Aguinaldo and Alexandro $200,000 each if they would leave Luzon forever. Each was to have a free pardon, also, for past offenses. The two accepted the offer, only to learn after they received the money that they were to be assassinated the following night at a festa. The next night came, but the two men engaged to kill the insurgents were found dead in their beds with knives driven through their hearts, and attached to the handle of each was a bit of paper bearing the inscription:

"Beware of the Malay's vengeance."

Polavieja resigned and returned to Spain, and Rivera going as well, Augusti became the captain general of the islands. He made no headway in the effort to subdue Aguinaldo. The revolt of the natives was growing every day, when the victory of Dewey ended Spanish power at Manila.

When Aguinaldo first revolted his followers were without arms. He subsequently armed a portion of them from the bodies of the Spanish soldiery whom they overcame with the bolo. But mysterious vessels came out of the sea bearing other arms and ammunition, and these were surreptitiously delivered to the insurgents without anyone discovering whence they came.

DEWEY MEETS AGUINALDO.

After Aguinaldo and Alexandro had received their $200,000 each from the Spaniards they quit the Philippines and went over to Honk Kong, and later to Singapore. It was when Dewey, then commodore, was preparing to leave this port to carry out the orders of the United States government to find and destroy the Spanish fleet that Dewey and Aguinaldo first met.

Howard Bray, an Englishman, whose name has been mentioned recently in cable dispatches in connection with an alleged plot to assassinate Admiral Dewey on his way home, was then at Singapore. He took Aguinaldo to Spencer Pratt, American consul general at Singapore, and made arrangements for an interview with Dewey. In that interview Aguinaldo was led to pledge himself to act in conjunction with Dewey in the expulsion of Spain from the Philippines. Subsequently the Malay leader left Singapore on a British steamship and returned to Luzon.

It was on December 14, 1897, that Aguinaldo accepted the offer of $200,000 to lease the islands, and was betrayed to death, though he escaped. From then until his return after the conference at Singapore it is not known that he was in the islands, though he was constantly in communication with the insurgents who were still fighting against Spain.

IS A MAN OF SMALL STATURE

Aguinaldo was small of stature, dark, with quick, furtive eyes, smooth face, sharp features and alert in his manner. Had he been seen on the streets of an American city before his features became familiar through the printing of his pictures he in all probability would have been mistaken for a Japanese student or artisan, for in general build and color he strongly resembled the Japanese, as do many of the more intelligent Malays His generalship showed itself in a resolute chin and over shot jaw. There was in his face something of the expression of a bulldog. Among the natives it was said he never slept, and whatever the verdict of history may be regarding his actions, he will be credited at least with ability in carrying out his ends, hardly to be expected in a native of a half-barbarous race. In his personality and appearance he exhibited many of the characteristics of an untutored race. His fondness for display and pomp was laughable but for the fact he took himself seriously. Among his own people his wisdom was regarded as something beyond comprehension, and his hold on them was through their mingled reverence and fear of him.

IT PLEASES ADMIRAL DEWEY.

New York, March 28.—Admiral Dewey was at the Albermarle hotel today and was interviewed as to the probable effect of the capture of Aguinaldo. He expressed the greatest satisfaction at the news of the capture and said that he thought that it would totally wind up the means of resistance. He also said:

"I am delighted to hear this news. Of course we had the warning a few days ago that it might occur, but it looked like a very risky undertaking, and if Funston had lost his life, everyone would have said 'I told you so.' It appears to be a very creditable piece of work on the part of Funston and in keeping with his previous exploits. It was in fact a case of fighting the devil with fire.

"If a large force had gone against Aguinaldo he would not have been found, but this was a kind of strategy of our own, though, and appears to have succeeded perfectly.

"Aguinaldo is a most amiable little fellow. He does not have the education with which he has been cedited. He was not really the brains of the insurrection.

"Babini was really the brains of the Filipino rebellion and Aguinaldo was the active leader. I admit that I did not give him credit for the abilities that he has shown, but he is certainly not a man of very great ability. One thing I wonder about is that the dispatches today from Manila describe him as 'talking freely.'

"When I first saw him he was notably reticent and a good deal of his strength came from the fact that he did not talk much. The people believed that he was invulnerable, however, and that no harm could be done to him. There was a story current, in fact, that a dozen men had stood up and fired at him as a test. I suppose there were no bullets in the guns.

"That story went everywhere. The people are intensely superstitious, and they believed that no harm could befall him. It will take some time now for the news to get around of the capture, and at first the people will refuse to believe it, but after the news does finally get around through the islands I fully believe that organized resistance will collapse. Of course there will be sporadic disorder for a long time to come, but I do not believe that there will be anything serious."

"What do you think ought to be done with Aguinaldo now?"

"Well, it seems to me that as good a thing as could be done for the present will be to send him to Guam. It is the same sort of a climate as in the Philippines and there would be no hardship in the change, but there would be no chance to do so."

SIDE TALKS!

On Interesting Subjects.

THE QUESTION IS OFTEN ASKED WHAT INTERESTS THE PUBLIC.

What kind of matter in the newspaper for example attracts them?

The writer believes that only one thing commands the attention and respect of all classes and kinds of readers, and that is, plain, simple truth. Believing that to be the case, he requests the public's attention to the following facts:

First. In the spring, every man, woman and child needs to look after their health. That is a fact.

Second. In the cold weather the blood, liver, kidneys and bowels become stagnant. That is a fact.

Third. We have the only agency in this city for the sale of the best medicine to renovate and cleanse the system, and build up the body in the spring. That is a fact.

Fourth. The reason this medicine is the best for this purpose is because it comes from the Green Mountains of Vermont, and is made from the purest, most powerful herbs known to medical science. These are facts.

Fifth. It does not contain any cocaine, opium, morphine, quinine, aloes, or other dangerous drugs. This is a fact.

Sixth. It is sold by Ranke & Nussbaum under a guarantee to benefit all diseases of the blood, nerves, liver and kidneys, dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. It is the medicine for tired, weak, dragged-out people. These are facts

Seventh. You cannot prove the truth of a statement without testing it for yourself. You can do this without its costing you one penny if what we have said is not true

Omega Oil

NEURALGIA—There is no sense in wasting words about Neuralgia. We know that it causes terrible suffering, and the darting pains are enough to drive you mad. What a sufferer wants is relief. He wants the pain to stop. He wants to be well and happy again. The way to get relief from neuralgia is to rub Omega Oil into the spot where the trouble lies. First bathe the part with hot water to open up the pores Then give it a good, thorough rubbing with Omega Oil. This liniment will be taken up by the flesh, and penetrate to the aching nerves. It will give gratifying relief. It will soften, soothe and comfort. It will overcome and banish the pain. Plenty of people will doubt this, but their doubting does not change the facts. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

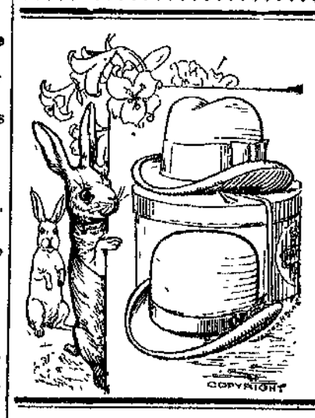

If your dealer refuses to supply you with this wonderful Swiss green liniment, the Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, for 50c. in cash, money order or stamps. 787

INSURED.

YOU insure your house against fire. You know what people would say if it burned down without insurance. They would say you were wanting in business sagacity, that you should have provided for this. Now leave house insurance and consider clothing insurance. Here the danger is even greater—not from fire, but from the chemicals and strong soaps used in the laundry. Wise women insure their finer, more delicate and perishable things against this risk, and the premium they pay is the trifling cost of Ivory Soap. That guarantees protection.

ARE AFTER RIGHT OF WAY.

William Driver started for Indiana Wednesday to assist General Manager A. J. Miller, of Dayton, in securing right of way and franchises for the projected Fort Wayne, Dayton and Cincinnati traction line. The line runs from Dayton to Troy; thence to Covington and here, coming in on Miami avenue; thence north to Harris Creek church, west to the Gettysburg pike and north to Webster and Versailles; thence through North Star, Celina and other points to Decatur, Ind., from whence it runs down through Portland, Winchester, Union City, Ansonia and back, forming a loop, with the junction either here or at Versailles, dependent upon the effort made by our people to secure the coveted junction point, with its manifold advantages, such as power house and terminals, which will carry with it a considerable number of employes and added population.

STICK RIGHT TO IT.

And Coffee Will "Do You" Right and Brown, if You Are Highly Organized.

It is remarkable how persistently men or women will stick to a drug through thick and thin, even after they become convinced that the drug is slowly killing them.

This is illustrated thousands of times every time. A sample case is that of F. L. Wolford, of Columbus, O., who says that all his life since a boy when he began drinking coffee, he has been anything but robust, or even in what might be termed good health. He has tried all sorts of drugs and tonics, and consulted many doctors. He quit tobacco, avoided all intoxicating drinks, stopped eating pastry, and took life easy as far as work was concerned, but the same old trouble continued and he could not get well.

He stuck to the coffee because he said, "I could not do without it. The climax came just about a year ago. I went all to pieces with nervous prostration, neurasthenia and insomnia. The physician absolutely demanded that I cease drinking coffee, and put me on Postum Food Coffee.

I very much disliked to think that I must take something in place of coffee, but to my surprise I found that Postum was so delicious and so exactly like first-class coffee in taste that I got on with it very well.

After a few days I began to notice that I craved Postum as much as I had the old coffee, and the longer I use Postum the more satisfied I become with it, until today I look upon Postum as the 'real thing' and the ordinary coffee as the 'substitute.'

I would not give one cup of Postum for all the coffee that grows in Central America, not only as a drink, but for what it has done for my health. I have built up again until I am in better health than I ever was, and owe the entire praise to Postum. It is simply a case of leaving off a poison and using a healthful food drink, containing powerful elements of nutrition.

Many among my own friends have quit coffee and begun using Postum Food Coffee.

Richard Wilhelm, 823 E. Main St., and his wife, both suffered from dyspepsia, but were cured by quitting coffee and using Postum Food Coffee.

James Neukamp, a grocer on E. Fulton St., had liver complaint. He has been greatly benefitted by leaving off coffee and taking Postum.

I can give you the names of a number of others who have either been entirely cured or greatly benefited by the use of Postum.

PLATT'S MONEY ORDER.

While the committee on finance of the senate, shortly before the recent adjournment of congress, was discussing the revenue reduction bill, the question of abolishing the stamp tax upon express money orders was brought to the attention of the committee by Senator Platt, who, as everyone knows, is the president of the United States Express company. The senators were not familiar with the money orders and Senator Platt undertook to enlighten them.

Near the capitol, in the neighborhood of the Baltimore and Ohio depot, is an office of the express company. Thither Senator Platt wended his way. When he entered the office a young clerk was behind the counter.

"I want a money order," said the senator, and the lad picked up the book of blanks.

"How much, sir?" he asked.

"Five cents," said the senator. The boy paused, looked at the would-be purchaser and repeated the sum.

"Yes," said Senator Platt, "I want a money order for 5 cents. I am the president of the company."

The latter remark settled it with the boy. He hurried into the private office of the agent. "Out here," he exclaimed, "there is an old gentleman who says he is the president of the company, and he wants a money order for 5 cents. I am afraid to give it to him for fear he will raise it."

The agent came out, recognized the senator, and a few minutes later the distinguished senators on the finance committee were examining a money order for 5 cents issued in the name of T. C. Platt.

The capture of Aguinaldo is important in one if in no other respect—it proves that he is not dead.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan can hardly be blamed for reluctance to discuss the preparations made for his death in England. It is an affair calculated to appeal to the delicacy of any man.

The engagement of Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson to Miss Emiline Griggsby is announced. This will compel the Merrimac hero to reform in the indiscriminate distribution of his kisses, or at least to be careful to avoid publicity.

His royal high jinks, the sultan of Morocco, has convinced this government that he has had no intention to snub our collector or to dodge our due bills and that the court may be approached anywhere on the road with perfect freedom. His word has been taken and the cruiser New York will not blow any of the sultan's property off the earth. We have had these Morocco-bound promises before and they always look better than they are.

The Chicago Times-Herald and the Chicago Record appear today as one publication called the Chicago Record-Herald. This change has involved one of the most notable newspaper consolidations of recent years and doubtless one that will prove beneficial to the interests consolidated. The Record has been sold by Mr. Victor F. Lawson to Mr. W. H. Kohlsaat, owner of the late Times-Herald, who has associated with him in partnership Mr. Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press and late editor of the Washington Star, who will be the editor of the Record-Herald. Mr. Lawson will continue to own and publish the Chicago News, an afternoon newspaper.

Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, is out with an announcement positively declaring that he will not be a candidate for re-election and that he will not permit the use of his name in connection with the democratic nomination. It may be that Mayor Taggart is in dreadful earnest in making the announcement, but those familiar with important incidents in Indianapolis politics will recall that two years ago Mayor Taggart made a similar declaration and with variations repeated it up to the time the democratic city convention met, when his personal desires were so greatly changed that he was again nominated. It may be that Mr. Taggart means it this time, but he is so suave and obliging that he may once more be lariated and dragged into the race. When the next democratic candidate for mayor of Indianapolis is named Mr. Taggart will be better understood.

The board of works is proceeding with some vigor in the work of cleaning the streets, but with none too much. All the streets are in need of attention and the task of cleaning them is gigantic. More in need of attention are the alleys, in which the winter's accumulation of filth is something almost inconceivable. This rubbish and refuse ought to be removed before settled warm weather comes, and in this the residents of the city should take more than a passive interest. It will be no great undertaking for each resident to clean the alleys about his premises To do this promptly means much for the promotion of public health in Fort Wayne. To neglect it means to invite the ravages of disease.

Now that Aguinaldo has at last been captured and is a military prisoner in Manila, it may be proper to inquire what is to be done with him. If he is kept a prisoner he will be regarded by his loyal followers as a martyr. If he is exiled he will be a menace to peace in the Philippines, because he may not abandon the revolutionary business. If he is sent to Guam he will escape or be released sooner or later and make trouble. If he is tried, condemned and executed it will incense his people in the Philippines and raise a more serious outcry in this country It might be well to bring him to this country for a lecture tour and incidentally to take a correct measure of the size of the proposition he has been up against in opposing the might of the United States. At all events, the capture of the noted Filipino chieftain will doubtless have the effect to stop hostilities, for a time at least. But what to do with the leader is a problem. Months ago it was believed by the army officers in the Philippines and the administration heads in Washington that to capture Aguinaldo would be to take possession of a very large white elephant. Perhaps the rapid disintegration of the insurgent movement has effected a change that makes it desirable to have the president of the late Filipino republic on hand. Maybe a fat office is contemplated for him.

FOR THE GRIP.

You Have Heard of Many Remedies —Did You Ever Try This One.

Everybody you meet on the streets nowadays either has just had the grip, is coming down with it or has a sure cure for it.

The disease has been a puzzle to physicians ever since its appearance several years ago and it is as much of a puzzle today as it was then. It exhibits such a variety or symptoms in different individuals and leaves such disastrous results after apparent recovery, that as yet its prevention and cure has baffled medical science.

However, there is no doubt but that the grip is catarrhal in character, and the leading symptom in nearly every case is increased secretion in the head and throat, in fact the first indications of lagrippe are those of a cold in the head which extends to the throat and lungs.

Dr. Johnson Ames advises as the safest course to pursue on the first appearance of grip symptoms to keep to the house for a day or two and take Stuart's Catarrh Tablets every hour the first day and every two hours the following day and states that this will break up the trouble before it becomes deep seated.

These catarrh tablets are antiseptic and harmless and prevent fever and the further development of grip germs and ward off the ever-present danger of pneumonia.

Dr. Gerald Simpson says: "I have found Stuart's Catarrh Tablets a pleasant and thoroughly reliable remedy for the grip, especially with elderly people with whom this prevailing disease is always dangerous; the tablets can be found at any drug store and if used freely during the first few days of the attack will break it up."

Lagrippe is a catarrhal affection, the germs are in the air and no one is proof against it, but the timely use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will prevent any serious results.

HE DENIES THAT HE IS DEAD

GABRIEL MOYER TURNS UP IN FORT WAYNE.

Garrett Junk Dealer, Supposed to Have Been Murdered at Indianapolis, Gets Mail Here.

Gabriel Moyer, the Garrett junk dealer, who was supposed to have been murdered at Indianapolis Tuesday morning, interposes a vigorous denial of the soft impeachment that he is dead. Mr. Moyer was in Fort Wayne Wednesday evening, and at 5 o'clock called at the postoffice for quite a bunch of mail which had accumulated there for him.

Jesse Allen, delivery clerk at the postoffice, is well acquainted with Moyer, who has frequent business transactions in Fort Wayne, and quite often gets mail here. It is quite evident there has been a very pronounced case of mistaken identity. Moyer's two sons conduct a shoe and clothing house at Garrett.

HEARD IT AT BLUFFTON.

In this connection the Bluffton News says that "this morning Gabriel Moyer, a Jewish junk dealer from Garrett, Ind., stepped into Henry Hunsicker's grocery. Henry threw both hands in the air, for he thought he had seen a ghost, for in the Muncie Star was a half page article and a picture of Moyer stating as a fact that his corpse had been found in a box car at Indianapolis and $400 was missing from his clothes. When Moyer was told he was dead he hustled to Ezra Levenson, an old friend, to find whether or not it was so. Ezra assured him that he was still living and by his request telephoned to his family at Garrett. It was found there that his family was almost crazed with grief and that his oldest son had gone to Indianapolis to take charge of the remains. Their joy at the discovery of their father's existence can be imangined.

"The Jew who really was dead was found in a box car in the Big Four railroad yards, about a mile east of Brightwood. Tuesday morning. Death was due to chloroform. The dead man's head was wrapped in his coat, and in his hand, shill clutched and held to the nose, was a handkerchief, which had been saturated with the drug. Ten tramps, who slept in the car, were taken to the police station to await an investigation in the man's death It seems that Moyer had been in Muncie Monday, and had left for Indianapolis with a large sum of money in his possession. A conclusion was jumped at, causing his family untold worry."

WANT ALLEN COUNTY BEETS

KALAMAZOO SUGAR BEET COMPANY ENTERS FIELD.

New Concern Will Pay $4 Per Ton for Beets and Wants 500 Acres Pledged—A Large Concern.

F. J. Henry, secretary and treasurer of the Kalamazoo Beet Sugar company, of Kalamazoo, Mich., is in the city, and is actively engaged among the farmers in the vicinity endeavoring to secure assurances of 500 acres for the cultivation of the beets. The company will pay $4 per ton for the beets f. o. b. Fort Wayne, or points along the line, and will furnish the seed, to be paid for out of the fall shipment of beets. The price which the company is willing to pay is 25 cents higher than that offered by the Continental company, of Cleveland, and as an additional inducement the company will keep an agricultural expert in Fort Wayne during the growing season to instruct the farmers in the proper method of growing the beets.

The Kalamazoo company was organized three years ago and it operates an extensive plant, grinding on an average of 500 tons of beets per day, and last year they manufactured over 4,000 tons of sugar. The company chemist sent here some time ago to examine the ground found that it was excellently suited to beet sugar culture, and that the average return per acre to the farmer would be about $80.

Herman Felts has been selected by Mr. Henry as agent for this territory and he will look after the company's business at this end of the line.

FRANK L. HILL DIED AT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

He Had Been Granted a Pension Wednesday—Joseph Kramer is No More—Other Deaths.

Frank L. Hill, of Oakwood, Ohio, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's hospital, where he had been a patient for some weeks. He was twenty-eight years of age and death was due to dysentery.

Hill served during the Spanish-American war as a private in company G, Second Ohio volunteers, and through the earnest efforts of Senator C. W. Fairbanks, the dying soldier was granted a pension Wednesday, the accrued amount being $150. Senator Fairbanks had the case made a special one upon the representation of Col. D. N. Foster that Mr. Hill was liable to die at any time as the result of disease contracted in the army. Mr. Hill's voucher for his pension money was signed Wednesday and immediately forwarded to Indianapolis.

The surviving relatives include the parents, a brother and five sisters. One of these sisters is Mrs. Lydia Smith, a professional nurse at one time attached to the hospital department of the school for feeble minded. Mrs. Smith resides at 53 East Berry street.

Joseph Kramer, well-known among the printing fraternity of Fort Wayne as a pressman, died at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kramer, 49 Madison street.

Mr. Kramer was thirty-one years of age, and has for some time been a sufferer from tuberculosis of the throat, which resulted in his death. For fourteen years he has been connected with the press room of the Journal-Gazette, and during the past two years has been foreman of that department. Mr. Kramer was a young man of high character, exemplary in habits and had a very wide circle of friends, to whom the news of his death will be a painful shock.

The funeral services will be held Monday morning at an hour to be announced later.

"I am not Well enough to Work."

How often these significant words are spoken in our great mills, shops, and factories by the poor girl who has worked herself to the point where nature can endure no more and demands a rest! The poor sufferer, broken in health, must stand aside and make room for another.

The foreman says, "If you are not well enough to work you must leave, for we must put some one in your place."

Standing all day, week in and week out, or sitting in cramped positions, the poor girl has slowly contracted some deranged condition of her organic system, which calls a halt in her progress and demands restoration to health before she can be of use to herself or any one else.

To this class of women and girls Mrs. Pinkham proffers both sympathy and aid. When these distressing weaknesses and derangements assail you, remember that there is a remedy for them all. We have on record thousands of such cases that have been absolutely and permanently cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restoring to vigorous health and lives of usefulness those who have been previously sorely distressed. Here is one of them.

Miss Junglas' First Letter.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—As I have heard and read so much about your wonderful medicine I thought I would write to you and tell you all about my sickness. I have been sick for four years with womb trouble, have whites, sick headache, pain in my back, and in right and left side of abdomen, feeling of fullness in vagina, am dizzy, weak and nervous. I have used many patent medicines, but found very little relief. Please give me your advice."—MISS KATIE P. JUNGLAS, New Salem, Mich. (May 4th, 1898.)

Miss Junglas' Second Letter.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to thank you for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. It is now six years since I was taken sick. I had falling of the womb and ovarian trouble, I suffered untold pains, sometimes was so bad that I thought I could not live. I used the Vegetable Compound faithfully and am now well. If you like, you may use my letter for the benefit of others,"—MISS KATIE P. JUNGLAS, New Salem, Mich. (May 12th, 1900.)

COMMUNICATION.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 16, 1901.

To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

Gentlemen. I herewith submit to you a report of the committee on Isolation Hospital with a resolution adopted by the Commercial club, and hope it may receive favorable consideration at your hands.

Very respectfully yours,
J. B. MONNING,
Secretary Commercial Club.

Referred committee on health.

TO THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Your committee on isolation hospital realizes more and more the urgent need of a public hospital for the treatment and detention of persons suffering from contagious disease within the city of Fort Wayne. Since your committee was appointed, an epidemic of infection has appeared in various parts of the city which has worked a hardship upon those who happened to come within its influence. An immunity, which can be largely attributed to good fortune alone, has for once stood between a large number of our citizens and the imprisonment of home quarantine with its attendant evils, in the way of inconvenience, discomfort and pecuniary loss. At the present time there is not a roof in the city of Fort Wayne which would afford shelter to strangers or homeless residents who might be found on our streets suffering from diphtheria, scarlet fever or smallpox. Should a guest at one of our hotels be thus infected the place would be subject to closure and quarantine by order of the health authorities. In vain might the proprietor demand that the patient be removed from the hotel; with no place open to receive him the patient would remain as his sole guest. A servant in one of the homes who develops an infectious disease subjects the house to quarantine, while it imprisons or exiles the family unless the patient be removed.

With a view to obtaining information pertaining to the successful working of existing plans for the care of infectious patients your committee has written to the health authorities of a large number of cities asking for details as to methods in vogue. A considerable number has responded, a goodly portion of which have little to suggest except plans in contemplation. Peoria, Ill., has heretofore adopted the system of utilizing an old building during the epidemic and then burning it down. This has not proved satisfactory and an isolation hospital is now under construction.

By far the best system of which we obtained information exists in Toronto, Canada. This is an extensive institution built and operated by the city, having a running expense in 1899 of $14,935.

We believe that the city should build and operate a hospital for contagious diseases, preferably in conjunction with a city hospital, for the treatment of charity patients, which are now treated at public expense in the two hospitals of the city. The money thus paid for the care of the indigent sick would go far toward supporting a city hospital for the purpose of charity and contagion.

It occurred to the committee that arrangements might be effected with one of our present hospitals by which a building might be erected adjacent to theirs and operated by the hospital management for the city. The operating expenses would therefore probably be materially lessened, as the outlay would be little in the periods when the city is free from contagion.

Both hospitals have been approached on this point. From St. Joseph's we get the information that their force of nurses would not warrant their undertaking the additional work. Hope hospital has given no definite decision.

The necessary expense connected with the construction and operation of a hospital suited to the city's needs will become apparent as its increasing usefulness become appreciated and utilized. As a start in the proper direction we believe that the city should procure an available house, dilapidated though it might be, even though it might not accommodate more than eight or ten persons. Such a place could be quickly put in order for the reception of urgent cases and the necessary extensions would follow as the growing needs of the city would indicate. Such conservative course would provide facilities at once at small expense to the city while it would also obviate the possible needless extravagance entailed by building in advance of the demands.

The running expense would be met to a considerable degree by funds received from those who would be able to pay for hospital services. Those who are unable to pay should be taken care of at public expense. The going to the hospital should be optional with those who can be taken care of elsewhere should they prefer to be subject to the regulation quarantine outside the hospital.

We recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Commercial club of Fort Wayne petition the city council to make the necessary appropriation for the creation of an isolation hospital for the care of contagious diseases in Fort Wayne.

E. J. M'OSCAR,
B. VON SWERINGEN.

The report was adopted and Secretary Monning was directed to transmit the petition to the city council.

Fort Wayne, March 15, 1901.

Referred to committee on health and city attorney.

DAYTON, O., March 25, 1901.

To the Honorable Members of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gentlemen: My application for a franchise for a street and interurban railway having been submitted to your honorable body some time since, and your committee after very careful deliberation, having recommended at your meeting of February 12, 1901, a grant under conditions more strict than have been required of any similar railway; and having failed to hear of any action upon said committee's recommendation, I hereby request that you act upon the same at once, if you desire said railway constructed.

It is absolutely necessary that this matter be determined immediately.

Hoping that I may speedily learn of favorable action upon the same, I remain,

Respectfully,

PETITION.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

Gentlemen: The undersigned, owners of property near the intersection of Baker street and Fairfield avenue, in the city of Fort Wayne, respectfully petition that an electric light be placed at the intersection of said streets. It is very near the railroad, a number of streets converge at that point, and the lights that are now near such intersection do not properly light up such streets and alleys.

COMMUNICATION.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 14, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gentlemen: It comes to the knowlede of this body that in numerous times throughout the United States there are being paraded upon the streets banners bearing the information that all the way from 9,000 to 15,000 mechanics and laboring men of all kinds are wanted in this city; and that there is more than enough work for all. Please kindly allow us to contradict such statements in the most unequivocal terms. While it is true that the building industry here is quite active at the present time, there are also many more than enough laborers and mechanics to do all the work at this time and in prospect. More men are arriving every day. There are numerous cases up to date where people have arrived here practically stranded and were unable to procure any kind of employment. Will your honorable body kindly bring this matter before your people by the best means at your command and inform them that unless men coming into this country are well supplied with capital they will undoubtedly find themselves in far worse condition than they can possibly be as now situated, the enticing statement paraded on streets notwithstanding. If it is possible we desire you to inform us that in cities where such advertisements have been displayed, at whose instigation it has been done.

Thanking you in advance for anything you may do to aid the people of your city to a correct understanding of conditions here and thereby assisting us to keep this city from becoming overcrowded with people who have no means of a livelihood, and requesting that you write us for any information desired, we are, gentlemen,

Very sincerely yours,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONTRACTS AND FRANCHISES.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 25, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the Common Council.

Gentlemen: We, your committee on contracts and franchises, to whom was referred the contract entered into by and between the board of public works and Henry F. Schnelker, Lycurgus S. Null, Lewis C. Hunter, Charles W. Orr and William S. O'Rourke, would recommend that the same be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The words "or elsewhere" should be stricken out in the last paragraph of this section. The right of way should be changed to read as follows: On New Haven avenue from the corporate limits of said city to Fletcher avenue, north on Fletcher avenue to Maumee avenue, west on Maumee avenue to Walton avenue, north on Walton avenue to Lake avenue, on Lake avenue to St. Joe road, on St. Joe road to the east end of the Maumee river bridge, on Maumee river bridge from the east end to the west end thereof. on Columbia street from the west end of the Maumee bridge to Calhoun street.

That section 8 be stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 8. It is also agreed by and between the parties to this contract that the said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns shall permit the tracks, poles and wires herein authorized to be laid and maintained, to be used by any city interurban or suburban railway company carrying passengers, baggage, light express and United States mail, whenever the board of public works and common council of said city, party of the first part, by contract approve by ordinance shall have granted, authorized and permitted any such company to operate any such railroad over and along the tracks of said second parties, their successors and assigns.

As compensation in the way of rental to said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, for the use of their said railroad and the poles and wires thereto belonging, by any such city interurban or suburban railway company receiving a franchise over the right of way of any portion thereof as authorized in section eighteen, said second parties, their successors and assigns shall receive from each of said companies, so authorized by said first party, one-half of the actual cost of original construction of said part of said road as is used by any such company within the corporate limits of the city, which cost of construction shall include the cost of the first pavement hereafter ordered by the board of public works, on any of said streets, so occupied, for the purpose of a city interurban of suburban business; also that any company or companies so authorized by the board of public works and the common council to run their cars over the tracks of said second parties, their successors and assigns, shall from and after occupancy of the same, pay an equal amount of the cost of maintenance, repairs, taxes and assessments of the part so used and occupied, and also of the cost of removing the tracks, poles and wires of said second party, to another part of the streets occupied, if ordered to be done by the board of public works and common council as hereinafter provided, and also a reasonable sum for propelling cars.

Provided, however, that if power is furnished to any such company or companies by said second parties, their successors and assigns, for a stipulated price, then in that case the cost of construction and maintaining poles and wires shall not be included in the item or rental expenses of said second party.

And provided further, that such expenses shall not include the annual franchise tax collected by said first party, or any other expense growing out of any obligation of said second party that relates alone to the cars, building of depots or any regulation thereof.

The said city interurban or suburban railway companies so authorized to operate cars over and along the tracks of said second parties or any part thereof as herein provided, shall pay the charges for the use thereof as follows: One-half the cost of the original construction of such part of the road of said second parties, their successors and assigns, as is authorized to be used, to be paid for in cash, such payment to be a condition precedent to the taking possession of such part of said road, authorized by the board of public works and the common council.

Provided, however, that if the said second parties and the company to which said grant is made do not agree to the original cost of construction of such art of the road as is to be used, within thirty days from the granting of the right to use such part of said road, then such use shall be permitted for such an amount as shall be fixed and determined as one-half of the original cost of the construction of the same, in an action instituted by either of said parties in the Allen circuit court of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, and pending such controversy of suit, such suburban or interurban company shall have the right to use the tracks authorized by the board of public works and the common council, upon executing a bond in such amount and with such security as shall be approved by said court, conditioned for the payment to said second parties, their successors and assigns, of the amount determined upon final judgment rendered in said court as being one-half of the original cost of construction of such part of the said road occupied and used, including therein one-half the original cost of first pavement that may have been made by said second parties, their successors and assigns, over and along such part, that payment of one-half of the accruing costs and expenses growing out of repairs and maintenance as herein provided shall be promptly paid at the end of each month.

If any such city interurban or suburban railroad company as may be hereafter authorized as herein provided to use the tracks of the railroad of the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, shall be in default for a eriod of ninety (90) days in making any payment herein provided, then their rights to use the tracks of the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, shall cease.

And, provided further, that if said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, cannot furnish power to propel the cars of such city interurban or suburban roads or they may be unable to agree on the reasonable cost of such power, then, in that event, the said city interurban or suburban lines, so authorized by the board of public works and the common council, shall have the right to construct and maintain feed and trolley wires on the poles of said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, in said city of Fort Wayne, and the compensation for the use of the poles for the construction and maintenance of said wires be as hereinbefore provided for the use of the tracks.

That the party of the first part reserves the right to require the said parties of the second part, their successor sand assigns, to remove their said tracks to any part of said streets or avenues hereinbefore mentioned without any expense to said first party, and if upon written notice by said first party to said second parties, their successors and assigns, to make any such changes, a refusal to do so, shall authorize the work to be done by said first party, and the cost of making the removal shall be paid by said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, to the city on demand, and the collection thereof enforced as any other valid debt and attorney's fees.

Section 9, amended to read "iron poles" on all streets within the city limits.

Section 13. The second sentence should read, the tracks of the said company, party of the "second part."

Section 18 should be added and read as follows: It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract, their successors and assigns, that the party of the first part herein reserves the absolute right to grant to any person, company or corporation a franchise for the purpose of constructing a city interurban or suburban street railroad over the right of way herein granted or any part thereof after four months from the approval of this contract and before occupancy of the same or any part thereof by said second party. Said first party further reserves the right to grant to any person, company or corporation a franchise for a city interurban or suburban railroad over same right of way of any part thereof herein specified after such occupancy of same by said second parties, their successors and assigns, provided that such grant shall authorize the use and occupancy according to terms and conditions provided in section 8, and, provided further, that if said grant is made to any person, company or corporation after four months and before occupancy by said second party that said second party in that case shall have the right to use and occupy said right of way according to section 8 of this contract.

And it is further agreed that said second party shall not use any portion of this right of way under section eight (8) unless they shall construct, maintain and operate an interurban line as hereinbefore provided between the cities of Fort Wayne and New Haven, Indiana.

Parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, obligate themselves to run one extra car in addition to those reuqired of interurban service and such other cars as are necessary to provide the proper and sufficient city service.

It is further agreed by the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns that they are to accept transfer tickets from all city, interurban or suburban lines upon an equal division of the fare provided for in the city of Fort Wayne; conditioned, however, that such other lines shall accept transfers from the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, upon the same conditoins.

It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract that all rights, privileges, conditions, limitations and obligations of the second parties shall extend to and be binding on their successors and assigns.

It is agreed by and between the parties of this contract that in the construction of the said railroad, none of the rights and privileges herein granted shall vest in the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, until said parties of the second part, their successor sand assigns, shall have constructed their interurban line from New Haven, Indiana, to the corporate limits of the city of Fort Wayne.

It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract that the party of the first part is authorized and empowered to grant a franchise to any person, company or corporation, to occupy and use any part of said city, interurban or suburban railroad that may hereafter come within the limits of the city of Fort Wayne by annexation of territory by the common council, provided that such use shall be upon the terms and conditions provided in section 8 of this contract.

It is understood between the parties of this contract that the right of way herein granted to the said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, from Walton avenue to Calhoun street is the right of way that was heretofore, by contract bearing date of May 21st, 1900, approved by ordinance passed by the common council, on the 30th day of June, 1900, granted to J. H. Simonson Lewis J. Lotilya, Edward White, James M. McKey, John W. White, Asahel S. Coverdale, Christian C. Schlatter, William Geake, Franklin P. Wilt, William Kaough, Perry R. Smith, Henry S. Thayer and John W. Olds by party of the first part, and said first party in granting the franchise herein agreed upon does so under and by virtue of the authority and power reserved unto itself in section 16 of said franchise to said J. H. Simonson, Lewis J. oBbilya, Edward White, James M. McKay, John W. White, Tsahel S. Coverdale, Christian C. Schlatter, William Geake, Franklin P. Wilt, William Kaough, Perry R. Smith, Henry S. Thayer and John D. Olds.

It is further agreed by and between said parties to this contract, that the party of the second part as evidence of good faith, covenants and agrees to deposit the sum of $2,000.00 in cash with the comptroller of the city, to be forfeited to said first party as stipultaed damages, provided that said second party fails to comply with the terms of said agreement, and provided further, that if said cash deposit is not made as herein provided within four months from the approval of this contract then the same to be null and void.

When amended as above, we would recommend that the ordinance be passed.

ABOUT BASE BALL.

The Western Base Ball association concluded its business session last night about 5 o'clock and an hour later all the magnates had departed for their respective homes well satisfied with their two days' work. There was little business of importance done yesterday after The Sentinel went to press and, as predicted, the league agreement was drawn for three years and signed by all the representatives. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution to conform to the class A requirements of the National league and a new form of contract, also made to conform to the new conditions, was adopted.

The question of adopting an official ball was discussed and it is more than probable that the Reach ball will be selected. The Reach ball differs from the Spaulding ball, heretofore used in the Inter-State, in that it is livelier and more conducive to run-getting. The association believes that the public wants to see clean hitting and good base running as much as it wants to see good battery work and sharp infielding; the matter was left open, however, for future settlement.

Another thing taken up was the consideration of Bobby Quinn's interest since the disbanding of the Inter-State had annulled all agreements which that league had made with Bobby. Five members of the new organization, however, had pledged themselves at the Columbus meeting to pay Bobby the sum of $500 provided he could accomplish certain things. Quinn faithfully fulfilled his part of the compact and the new members of the association agreed that this organization was morally bound to fulfill the other side of the contract with the result that a motion was passed providing that the Western association pay Bobby Quinn the sum of $500 on May 15 in accordance with the past agreements and services rendered.

Now it is up to the various clubs to secure players. Manager Miller says he is very well satisfied with the material he has at hand with the exception that he needs a little more strength in the pitcher's box and he will, of course, strengthen his team in every way possible. He believes that the new condition of things will make good players more anxious than before to get into Class A and will bide his time while keeping his eyes wide open. Within a week he expects to have a list to give out that will make some of the other clubs open their eyes.

BIG BILL OF COSTS.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 28.—There is some talk among the hot-headed ones of bringing suit for damages against the people responsible for Wheeling being dumped by the Inter-State league, but the probability that the move would not result in anything but a big bill of costs is so great that it is not likely anything will be done. Wheeling fans are confident a mistake was made in admitting Marion in place of Wheeling, especially as for the first time this city was in a position to play Sunday ball. An effort is being made to form an Ohio-Pennsylvania league, but so far without success. Mansfield, Wheeling, Canton, Youngstown, New Castle, Erie, Sharon and Ashtabula are on the proposed circuit.

ANDERSON INDIGNANT

Anderson, Ind., March 28.—The Anderson Athletic association will probably sue the Western association, successor to the Inter-State base ball league, for the cost of the franchise which Anderson held until deprived of it in the reorganization at Fort Wayne Tuesday night. Indianapolis is blamed for Anderson's loss and it is declared that Watkins, of Indianapolis, will not be allowed to play his Sunday games in this city. The talk is revived today of an Indiana league, to include Anderson, Muncie, Logansport, Lebanon, Wabash and Kokomo.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Charles Zimmer has reconsidered his determination not to play ball any more and will again be with Pittsburg this year.

Harry Criss, of Toledo, has applied for a positon as umpire with the new league and President Billy Meyer has his application under advisement. Criss umpired a number of games last summer and gave good satisfaction.

Tuck Turner, Toledo's first baseman last year, who signed with Colorado Springs, of the Western league, wants to play in Toledo again this year. Turner said he thought he could get more money out west than he could here, but he is under contract and must play there; therefore Tuck is sore. There will be a whole lot of sore ex-Inter-State players before many moons. Like the dog in the fable who saw the reflection of a piece of meat in the water, that looked larger than the piece in his mouth, and dropping the material for the shadow, lost all, so a lot of ex-Inter-Staters who went out west because of possibly bigger salary, will wish they had held on to what they had. The new Westetrn association will be able to pay larger salaries than the Western league on account of less expense, and it is safe to say a whole raft of former Inter-State players, now associated with the Western league, would like to do the prodigal act.

Marion yesterday signed George Nill, of this city. The Sentinel on Tuesday called attention to the fact that any club might go farther and fare worse than by signing him, and Frank Brosier acted on the suggestion and picked him up. Young Nill is certainly a comer.

Not counting the tributary population the Western league will have but 80,000 more population to draw from than the Western association, while they will have a mileage of over 13,000 miles against our 4,600. The Western league has a larger mileage than the National league.

The Shamrocks will play in Richmond May 19, June 23 and August 11, all Sunday games. Last year the same clubs drew 1,700 people to the grand stand one Sunday.

Lima, Ohio, will not play ball until June, when a handsome new park will be dedicated by the street car company. The Shamrocks will play the opening game.

Manager Byram, of the crack Richmond team, is endeavoring to arrange a trip for the Richmonds and Shamrocks to the south this season. The trip will take in towns in Tennessee, Georgia and Louisiana. The Richmond team was south last year and the trip was a financial success.

E. K. Dorr tells the Indianapolis Press that Fort Wayne will have Sunday ball and that no more base ball cases will be taken into the circuit court. This will be a bit of welcome news to the local club owners, who did not quite know where they were at.

Anderson is out just $1,050 in cash by reason of the base ball dump.

Fort Wayne is the next to the smallest city in the Western association circuit. Marion is the smallest.

In the new circuit there will be but two sleeping car jumps, they being from Louisville and Indianapolis to Grand Rapids.

Manager Strobel has signed Al Pardee, the star pitcher of last year's Wheeling club. Pardee has speed and curves and will be a tower of strength on the Toledo club. Addie Joss has been located by Strobel and he will probably be signed.

Bob Dickson says that the people are mistaken in the American league; that it's not what it's cracked up to be.

The fans at Dayton tendered Catcher "Jiggs" Donahue a black bass supper a few evenings ago in honor of his departure for Pittsburg, where he will catch this season.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, March 28.—Early business in corn was light and the tone of the market a trifle easier on clearing weather, improved grading of fresh arrivals and reported freer country offerings. May opened unchanged at 42½c, touched 42½@42¾c and reacted to 42⅜c. Receipts were 183 cars, 37 of contract grade.

Wheat was dull but steady and the late advance was held fairly well. Steady cables were a help, but liberal receipts and the Price Current report declaring crop conditions good caused a slight reaction. May opened a shade to ⅛c lower at 75½@75⅝c and sold to 75¾@75⅞c. Local receipts were 66 cars, none of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 364 cars against 377 last week and 496 a year ago.

May oats opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 25c to 25⅛c and ruled practically unchanged during the fore part of the session. Receipts were 104 cars.

Business in provisions was extremely light. The market opened firm on light hog receipts, and higher prices at the yards, but eased later on selling by packers and local operators. May pork opened 2½c higher at $15.75 and declined to $15.45; May lard opened a shade up at $8.07½ and sold to $8.02½, and May ribs unchanged at $8.00, easing to $7.95.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows.

Wheat—March, 74⅞c; April, ——c; May, 75⅞@76c.

Corn—March 41⅜c; May, 42⅞c.

Oats—March, 25c; May, 25½c.

Pork—March, $15 35; May, $15.47½; July, $15.07½.

Lard—March, $8.10, May, $8.02½; July, $7.95@7.97½; Sept., $7.97½.

Ribs—March, $7.92½. May, $7.92½; July, $7.82½; Sept., $7.77½@7.80.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.57; No. 1, $1.55½@1.56; May, $1.54¼@1.55. Sept., $1.14@1.16.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, March 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 10,000, market steady to strong, butchers' stock strong and active Good to prime steers, $4.95@6.00, poor to medium, $3.70@4.85; stockers and feeders, $3.10@4.75, cows, $2.65@4.40; heifers, $2.75@4.60, canners, $2.00@2.00, bulls, $2 75@4.40; calves, $4.25@5 75, Texas fed steers, $4.00@5 00, Texas grass steers, $3.40@4 00, Texas bulls, $2.75@3 75.

Hogs—Receits today, 40,000; tomorrow, 18,000; left over, 5,448; market steady, closing stronger; top, $6.15. Mixed and butchers, $5 85@6.15, good to choice heavy, $6.00@6.15; rough heavy, $5.85@5.95, light, $5.80@6.05; bulk of sales, $5.95@6.02.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 28.—The stock market lacked a definite tone at the opening, prices showing slight variations both above and below yesterday's closing. Business was large and well distributed. Six thousand shares of Erie were sold at prices both ⅛ above and as much below yesterday's closing. Northern Pacific rose to 94 on the purchase of 3,000 shares. The United States Steel corporation's stocks were dealt in in the unlisted department for the first time and 5,000 shares of the common were sold at from 43¾ to 43⅞ and 8,000 shares of the preferred brought from 93 to 93½.

The irregularity of the London market was reflected in the dealings in the international stocks here.

Room traders, offered large amounts of Sugar and Burlington, which lowered them a point and caused a reaction in all other stocks St Paul's initial gain of a point was wiped out and Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville, Erie second preferred, Great Northern preferred, Iowa Central common and preferred, Wabash preferred, Delaware and Hudson and Rubber preferred yielding from 1 to 2 points. A subsequent strong recovery in Burlington and Sugar cancelled them losses and there was a development of strength in other stocks which had a momentary sustaining effect on the general list.

Union Pacific, United States Leather common and preferred, Consolidated Gas, Wheeling and Lake Erie first and second preferred, Colorado Fuel and Erie common were advanced 1 to 1½, while Pittsburg, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis got up 2½. The higher level of prices was not well maintained, room traders showing an inclination to take profits on spasmodic rallies

Concerted action by the bulls in a few leading stocks caused prices in the general list to advance in sympathy.

Burlington sold up to 170, Northern Pacific to 95½, and Unionn Pacific to 93 Enormous purchases of Wheeling and Lake Erie stocks lifted them 2½ and 3½, the latter in the second preferred.

Manhattan was pushed up 2 points and Brooklyn Transit rose sympathetically, but Metropolitan Street Railway was sluggish.

United States Steel stocks rose to above the opening high prices, and the stocks of the constituent companies was also better.

Lackawanna jumped 2½. There was a notable weakness in Pennsylvania which lost 1½, and Rubber common and preferred 2s and 3s respectively.

Bonds were irregular.

ANDREW DORNTE ARRESTED

STOLE S. F. SWAYNE'S HORSE AND BUGGY SUNDAY.

The Lad Had Been Keeping the Horse in a Vacant Barn in the West End—Bad Youngster.

At 2:30 this afternoon Samuel F. Swayne recovered the horse and carriage stolen from his barn last Sunday night, and Andrew Dornte, a fourteen-year-old lad living at 230 West Washington street, is locked up in the police station, having confessed to the theft. Several days ago Dornte was arrested by Detective Coling for having stolen Evangelist Harter's horse from his barn and driven it about the city at night on several occasions. Dornte cried to be let go and was released on the promise that he would present himself before the mayor for reprimand the next morning. He did not come, but later his mother came and begged so hard for her wayward boy that the matter was dropped. The officers, however, got a tip yesterday that the Swayne horse was somewhere in the vicinity, and it was learned that Dornte had been trying to buy some oats. After noon today Officer Romy and another policeman went out to the west end and found the horse in a barn near the Dornte home, the house on the lot being unoccupied. The lad was then arrested and brought down. He denied all knowledge of how the horse came there, but after Detective Coling and Officer Romy had him in the sweat box for a while he said he had caught the horse on the road near the Bass farm this morning and had just brought him to town. Coling then took hold of the boy again and presently he confessed that he had stolen the horse himself on Sunday night. During all this time the poor beast was without food, although the young miscreant says he gave it water.

Dornte is a bad case and has given the police lots of trouble before. He is the lad who has taken Mr. Harter's horse on various occasions, he broke into the Washington street school house, took a lot of pictures in the west end, recently smeared a new house all over with paint, has sent in a number of false alarms of fire and has been in every sort of trouble imaginable, and is the ringleader of a tough gang of boys who have made life miserable for west enders for many months. He will be kept in the police station until morning, when he will be taken before the mayor and an effort will be made to send him to the reform school. Other arrests will follow, as the police are determined to break up the gang if they have to send them all to Plainfield.

INSTANTLY KILLED

W. E. BROWER DIES IN THE PERFORMANCE OF DUTY.

CONDUCTORS' GRAND BALL

EVENT SLATED FOR APRIL 9 AT ELEKTRON HALL.

LAFAYETTE IS AMBITIOUS

WANTS WABASH SHOPS REMOVED TO THAT CITY.

W. E. Brower, formerly of this city, was instantly killed in the railway yards at Logansport Wednesday afternoon. The young man was employed as a yard conductor by the Panhandle and met death while in the performance of that duty. Just how he was killed his relatives here have not been informed. The remains were brought to this city today at 11:45 o'clock over the Wabash road and were immediately taken to the home of the bereaved parents, No. 58 Barthold street, from whence the funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. Services will be held at the United Brethren church at 1:30 o'clock and interment will be made in the Brower cemetery, seven miles out on the Leo road. The deceased was twenty-five years old and single. He went to Logansport several years ago to work on the road and for some time was a brakeman in the road service. When the force of trainmen was reduced, on account of a falling off of traffic, Mr. Brower was offered a position in the yards, which he accepted.

MOVES TO FORT WAYNE.

Claim Agent Harry Meisse, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana company, has transferred his headquarters from Grand Rapids to this city and will soon be given an office in the Pennsylvania company's buildings. Mr. Meisse is well known here and his numerous friends will be glad to learn that he is to become a resident of Fort Wayne.

MR. HARBER VERY SICK.

Peter Harber, the machinist, is lying very ill with pneumonia at his home, on South Hanna street. Yesterday it was feared that he could not survive, but he rallied and may recover, though he is still in a dangerous conditoin. Mr. Harber has worked in the Pittsburg shops since March, 1882, and is one of the most skillful workmen in that establishment. He worked last Monday, complaining then of only a slight cold.

MOVING TO ALLEGHENY.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knight are preparing to move to Allegheny, Pa., which city will be their home in the future. Mr. Knight has been appointed to a responsible position in the shops of the Pennsylvania company in that city. He was for a number of years employed in the car department of the western division and for three or four years served as an inspector of new cars as they were being builded at the various car works other than those of the company.

CONDUCTORS' ANNUAL BALL.

The annual ball of Wayne division, No. 119, Order of Railway Conductors, will be held this year at the G. A. R. hall, in the Elektron building, on the night of April 9. The conductors have, very wisely, called the ladies to their assistance and Kekionga division, No. 51, Ladies' auxiliary to the O. R. C., will participate as hostesses at the ball. Provisions will be made for those who do not dance, one of the side features being a progressive pedro game. The affair will be enjoyable, as are all the social functions of the two orders.

THEY WANT SHOPS.

Lafayette Journal: "A citizen has discovered that the Wabash railroad can be induced to move its shops to this city by the payment of a cash bonus of $200,000 and the donation of forty acres of land. He does not think that this would be a big price for the shops and points to the fact that $130,000 was paid for the Monon shops without any subsequent regret. He has already selected a site for the Wabash shops, locating them east of the Wabash railroad and north of Greenbush street on land that was once the property of Robert Heath. The Wabash railroad at one time made a bid on this land, but the offer was not accepted. It is a well known fact that the company has twice endeavored to purchase land in this city on which to locate its shops, but both times withdrew from the market because it thought that the price demanded for the land was too high. People have since realized the mistake that was made years ago, but no opportunity has ever offered to correct it. The shops used by the road at Andrews for a number of years have been abandoned and the buildings once used are falling into decay and ruin. The principal shops of the system are maintained in Fort Wayne. Lafayette would be a convenient location for the shops, as it is not far from the center of the system, and there are other advantages that the city might use as arguments in making an effort to secure the shops whenever an opportunity offers. Time was when Lafayette was one of the most important division points on the road. There are indications that the importance of the location is being recognized and that Lafayette is to become something better than a mere stopping point. Surveys are now being made with a view to putting in coal chutes, and it is understood that the company is figuring on putting in its own water supply. The present coaling station is now at Buck Creek, but as all of the trains are compelled to stop here, it is believed that valuable time can be saved by coaling the engines here while the trains are discharging baggage and passengers."

THEY RETURN HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Platter have returned to Fort Wayne and are now looking about for a house with a view to settling down for good. Mr. Platter is a passenger fireman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road. Until this week he had a run on the north end of the southern division of the road, having a lay-over in Grand Rapids. He has been transferred to the south end, with headquarters in this city. Mr. Platter is glad to get back to Fort Wayne.

STRUCK WITH A BAT.

Andrew Ryan, an employe of the Olds Wagon company, will be unable to work for a few days. Yesterday, while playing ball with some friends, he was struck above the right eye with a bat, which slipped from the hands of one of the boys. The skin was burst open for a considerable space and Dr. W. M. Enslen was called to stitch the wound. The unfortunate young man is seventeen years old and the son of Andrew Ryan, a well known employe of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops.

A BALKY ENGINE.

Bluffton Banner: "Engine 28 on the Clover Leaf, which pulled the westbound passenger today at noon, is known to railroad men as the 'Calamity Jane.' This name was given the engine on account of its propensity to lay down in the middle of a lonesome stretch of track and refuse to work. No amount of doctoring with a monkey wrench and profanity will make the 'Calamity Jane' move on when one of these spells overtakes her and another engine has to be called. The trainmen receive a certain number of cents for every mile traveled and when the big jonah balks it cuts into their pay check at a disastrous rate."

PITTSBURG IMPROVEMENTS.

The bridge carpenters on the western division of the Pittsburg road have been busily engaged all winter upon various improvements which come under the maintenance of way department and still have plenty of work of that character in sight. They have just completed the installation of two large water tanks at Washington, Ohio, making that one of the best watering stations on the line. These tubs are sixteen feet deep and twenty-two feet in diameter and are thirty feet from the ground, giving a strong pressure to the water which is drawn from them. The pipes leading from the tubs to the engine tanks are also larger than the old pipes and an ordinary engine tank can be filled in thirty seconds; formerly it required four to five minutes to fill the tanks. Another important improvement under way is a 15x27 foot interlocking tower at Dunkirk, Ohio, which will be a very fine affair. The piling for the false work at the Tippecanoe river bridge is being put in this week. This bridge will be a heavy double-track structure to correspond with the changed conditions of traffic. The work of placing the new bridge and the supports and abutments will be accomplished in a manner that will not in the least interfere with traffic on the road.

A Positive Woman.

A woman has a right to be positive on matters which are matters of personal knowledge and experience. Every woman who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the womanly organs is positive as to its wonderful curative value, and confidently recommends it to similar sufferers.

Women who suffer from inflammation, ulceration, female weakness, or nervous diseases caused by disease of the womanly organs will find a complete cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prolapsus, and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "Glad I have not needed it for a few years past, but if I should have any return of the old trouble would surely try 'Favorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."

GROW CARELESS OF DANGER

"After a miner has handled dynamite for eight or ten years without a serious mishap it is a good idea to put him to doing something else about the works," said a gentleman of this city who has had a great deal of experience with high explosives. "The chances are 100 to 1 that his long immunity from accident has given him such a contempt for danger that he is an unconscious menace to everybody on the premises. He will do things that not only imperil his own life, but the lives of all his comrades. To give you an illustration, I once had an old Cornishman at work in a mine in which I was interested and had intrusted him with a general supervision of all the blasting. He had been handling dynamite for twenty years or more and was justly regarded as an expert. During that entire period he had never had an accident worth speaking of, and by degrees the care and vigilance that were responsible for his excellent record had worn away until he was beginning to entertain the delusion, common to old hands, that the danger of the stuff was very much exaggerated.

"One day I was passing through a cut where some blasting had been going on and noticed the old Cornishman hammering a drill into what seemed to be a boring in the rock. I asked him what he was doing and he told me coolly there was a cartridge in the hole that had failed to explode and he was 'just knockin' out the tamping to reprime it.' I was horrified, for at every blow he was liable to explode the dynamite, and I ordered him sternly to stop and never to repeat such a performance. The proper method would have been to have drilled a new hole near by and exploded the first charge with a second blast. He obeyed sullenly, grumbling to himself, and less than a month afterward was blown up while doing exactly the same thing. He lost his left arm at the shoulder, his left eye and part of his left ear. He also lost his contempt for dynamite, and when he finally emerged from the hospital I gave him back his former job. I never had a more scrupulously careful employe than he was from that time on. It seems a brutal thing to say, but there is nothing that does an old dynamite hand as much good as to get blown up once or twice."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

To Whom This May Concern:

I have been a sufferer from rheumatism for over twenty years. I have tried everything almost that I could find and found no relief. About two months ago Mr. George Godfrey told me to take Wright's Rheumatic Remedy and it would surely cure me. I tried it and am now on my third bottle and find it has cured me. I cannot recommend your remedy—Wright's Rheumatic Remedy—too highly, and I wish to say to my friends, if you are suffering from rheumatism or kidney trouble, by all means use it.

I have lived in Fort Wayne since 1859 and am now clerking in Lehman's clothing house. I again say, if you have rheumatism, use Wright's Rheumatic Remady.

My Dear Sirs:—It is with pleasure I write you concerning your most valuable remedy, known as Wright's Rheumatic Remedy, the great Canadian cure.

I have been a sufferer from sciatic rheumatism in the very worst form for more than two years. I was at Mt. Clemens, Hot Springs and West Baden and found no relief whatsoever. I was entirely discouraged, as it laid me up bedfast most of the time and I could not move a limb. I had given up all hopes of recovery, when one of my employes insisted I should take your remedy. I did so and after taking one and one-half bottles I was perfectly cured. I can walk straight and all my pains have left me and I am now in the best of health.

I cannot speak too highly of your remedies and anyone wishing to find out its merits can write me and I will be pleased to verify the above statement. Respectfully yours,

HAVE THE BUFFALOES FADED.

A new organization has sprung into existence within the past few days that expects to have the ancient order of Buffaloes faded within a very short time. The new order was formed at the instigation of W. F. Graeter, of the Indiana Furniture company, and its sole purpose besides those fraternal and social is to boom the new auditorium. The membership is entirely confined to traveling salesmen, and no outsiders need apply. Inside of two or three days at one establishment in the city twenty-five salesmen, representing outside business houses, became members of the order, and they were given a button, the grip, and received all the high signs and passwords. The sum of $25 was assessed for membership and as it is estimated that several thousand traveling salesmen visit Fort Wayne every three months it will be seen this will be a considerable source of revenue. The scheme has been taken up by other city firms, and there is competition as to who will initiate the largest number of candidates.

PREACHED ON PENANCE.

A constantly growing interest and congregations that fill the Cathedral to the very doors continue to characterize the series of mission services now in progress. Last evening Rev. Father Shyne, one of the Jesuit missionaries, delivered a strong sermon on confession, in which he set forth the Catholic doctrine of penance. Classes for instruction are held each evening, and about thirty non-Catholics are now receiving instructions preparatory to uniting with that church. The mission is by far the most successful of any held in this city for many years.

TAKING NEW TRADE MARK.

The Wayne Knitting mills has just adopted a new trade mark which will at once be registered in the patent office at Washington. The new design is for use on boys and girls' hosiery. It consists of the word "Pony" wrought in ornamental fashion, and associated with it is the picture of a boy in rough rider costume astride a prancing pony. Chapin & Denny are filing the trade mark.

FROM FAR-OFF CUBA.

Corporal George Downey, of Company H, Eleventh United States infantry, is in the city for a few days, the guest of his brother, C. S. Downey, of the Nickel Plate. Corporal Downey is off on a furlough and this is his first visit in Fort Wayne in ten years. His home it at Apache, Ariz., where his company was recruited, and his station is at Pinar del Rio, Cuba.

GO TO INDIANAPOLIS.

Thomas Lau, acting manager of the Fox bakery, and the traveling salesmen of that house, will go to Indianapolis tomorrow morning to attend a business meeting of the salesmen of the National Biscuit company of Indiana. The session will be held in the English hotel, and at its conclusion the men will enjoy a banquet and social session. About 100 salesmen will attend the meeting.

ATTENTION TEACHERS

For the meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers' association to be held at Anderson on April 4th, 5th and 6th, the WABASH will make a low round trip rate. If enough will go to justify, a special train will be run in each direction. Apply early to Superintendent Study or the Wabash ticket office.

AGUINALDO IN LIMBO

The Elusive Filipino Leader is Captured by Funston and is Now in Manila.

CAUSES JOY IN WASHINGTON

It is the Belief That the Taking of the War Chieftain Will End All Armed Resistance in the Philippine Archipelago Very Soon.

Manila, March 28.—Aguinaldo, who was captured by General Funston and brought to Manila on the United States gunboat Vicksburg, was brought ashore at 3:10 p. m. today and taken before General MacArthur at the Malacanang palace.

He talked freely, but seemed ignorant concerning recent events.

He appeared to be in good health and was even cheerful.

He lunched with the officers of General MacArthur's staff and is now a prisoner in General MacArthur's palace.

Aguinaldo's capture was attended with considerable difficulty, an insurgent major being killed at the time of the event. Twenty rifles and a number of important papers were captured.

OFFICIAL REPORTS.

Washington, March 28.—The press reports of the capture of Aguinaldo by General Funston were confirmed today by General MacArthur, at Manila, in the following cablegram to Adjutant General Corbin:

"General Funston has just returned from expedition to Palanan, province of Isabella, where he captured Aguinaldo, who is now in my possession at Malacanan. Particulars later."

Malacanan is General MacArthur's headquarters and residence in Manila.

Secretary Root informed a representative of the Associated Press this morning that he can make no statement yet as to the disposition of Aguinaldo.

He supposes that he will be treated as other prominent insurgents who have been captured.

When asked if Funston would be rewarded by promotion for his daring work, the secretary said that question had not yet been considered.

Admiral Remey, at Manila, has cabled the navy department as follows:

"Cavite, March 28.—Bureau Navigation, Washington: Vicksburg sailed 8th with General Funston and eighty-three Maccabebees aboard, expedition to capture Aguinaldo. Returned today. Aguinaldo and three staff officers captured and delivered to custody of General MacArthur.

"Remey."

MUCH JOY IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, March 28.—The news of General Aguinaldo's capture by General Funston was received everywhere in official circles with intense gratification, but, perhaps, nowhere did it create more satisfaction than at the white house. The first official news to reach the executive mansion was General MacArthur's dispatch announcing the capture, which came about midnight last night. This morning the president also saw Admiral Remy's cablegram and the press dispatches.

The president naturally is very much gratified that the chief mover in the insurrection has at last been taken.

HAD PICKED FUNSTON.

It has been the opinion of the military authorities for a long time that Aguinaldo was doing more than all the other agencies combined to keep the rebellion in the Philippines alive and every energy was directed to compass his capture. It is rather a remarkable tribute to the daring and resourcefulness of General Funston that long before he made the attempt he was selected by the authorities here as the officer who might achieve it. It was the intention of General Funston some time ago to return to the United States, but by direction of the war department he was detained in the Philippines in the hope that just such a contingency as did arise should give him the opportunity to test his prowess.

Both the president and war department were fully informed of the trap laid to capture the insurgent chief and the result of the expedition has been anxiously awaited for several days.

VITAL QUESTIONS RAISED.

Several interesting and, indeed, vital questions are raised by Aguinaldo's capture. If the insurrection now collapses, as it is hoped it will, it may not be necessary to enlist the full strength of the army provided for in the army reorganization bill. There also is the question of the disposition to be made of the insurgent chief. But it is too early yet for the authorities to decide these questions. There also is much speculation as to the reward which General Funston may receive for his work. It is considered not improbable that his reward will be a commission in the regular establishment.

In cabinet circles General Funston's exploit was referred to in laudatory terms and the probable effect it will have on the termination of hostilities in the Philippines is being generally discussed.

Secretary Long expressed the prevailing sentiment. He naturally was much gratified at the official confirmation of Aguinaldo's capture and of the assistance that the navy had been able to render General Funston in facilitating his exploits.

GOOD MORAL EFFECT.

The capture itself was of much importance, he said, but he suggested that the moral effect probably would count quite as much as the brilliancy of the exploit. He considered it one of the most significant features of the affair that the natives themselves had been instrumental in bringing about the capture. They had made up a considerable part of Funston's force and their willingness to go into the heart of Aguinaldo's stronghold indicated that in their own minds they felt that there was no longer any real danger to be apprehended from Aguinaldo's strength.

That such a sentiment had obtained hold among the Filipinos was, in the judgment of Secretary Long, a significant evidence that the insurrection had lost its vitality among the people themselves.

To this sentiment was now added the loss of the ostensible head of the insurrectionary movement, which would doubtless exert far-reaching influence upon the native mind.

The secretary said he presumed that Aguinaldo would be held as a prisoner of war.

"What will be done to him," Mr. Long was asked.

SHOULD BE SPANKED.

"It is a little early to say," responded the secretary, and then, after a pause, he added, smilingly:

"I should say that he should be spanked with a shingle."

It was suggested to the secretary that as a prisoner of war who has rebelled against the authority of the United States, it might be incumbent under military procedure to deal with Aguinaldo by those rigorous steps usual to warfare.

But Mr. Long shook his head and remarked that that was hardly the way we were in the habit of doing things. He was more inclined to his first view that the noted prisoner should be "well spanked."

This idea as to the treatment to be accorded Aguinaldo seems to be the one most generally accepted among officials, and while the suggestion of "spanking" is used in a figurative sense there is no suggestion in any quarter that he will meet with that rigorous punishment at times adminis-

DEADLOCK ENDED

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE HAS ELECTED SENATORS.

GOVERNOR DIETRICH IS ONE

J. H. MILLARD, AN OMAHA MAN, IS THE OTHER.

RESULT WAS A COMPROMISE

LEADING CANDIDATES HAD TO WITHDRAW.

Lincoln, March 28.—J. H. Millard, of Omaha, and Gov. Charles H. Dietrich, of Hastings, who were nominated by the republican caucus this morning for the long and short term United States senatorships respectively, were elected by the joint session of the legislature at noon.

Each received seventy-two votes—the entire republican strength.

Mr. Millard was assigned the seat of Senator Thurston, while Governor Dietrich is the successor of the late Senator Hayward.

Repeated caucuses and a daily ballot for two months and a half tells the story of the struggle for the two vacant seats of Nebraska in the United States senate. When the republican caucus adjourned late last night the deadlock apparently was as firm as ever. On reassembling this morning the men who had probably prevented a nomination several days ago of D. E. Thompson began going over to Crounse, but could not muster enough votes to cause a solution of the difficulty. Mr. Thompson finally arose and announced his decision to withdraw from the contest for the short term, and suggested that his followers take up Governor Dietrich.

Immediately Edward Rosewater, of Omaha, candidate for the long term, announced his withdrawal and suggested to his friends the name of Mr. Millard. Meikeljohn also withdrew.

Two ballots were then taken. On the first Governor Dietrich received sixty-seven votes and his nomination was made unanimously. Crounse received thirty-five and Millard thirty-nine. Before the second ballot was half finished several changes were made to Millard and Crounse finally withdrew before the completion of the vote. Millard's nomination was declared unanimously.

Joseph H. Millard and Charles H. Dietrich are both bankers. Neither has been prominent in politics until within the last year.

Senator-elect Millard was born in Hamilton, Canada, in 1836. He came to Nebraska in 1856 and has resided since then in Omaha. He was the founder of the Omaha National bank, of which institution he is still the president. He was for many years a director of the Union Pacific railroad, but has not been connected with the road under the reorganization. He has never held a public office.

Charles H. Dietrich, elected for the short term, is governor of Nebraska and president of the German National bank of Hastings. He was born at Aurora, Ill., in 1853, and came to this state in 1887. Prior to his nomination for governor on the republican ticket last year he had never been in politics.

Governor Dietrich's election to the senate will raise Lieutenant Governor Savage to the office of governor, which the former will vacate on his qualification as senator.

TRACTION STRIKE AVERTED.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 28.—There will be no strike on the Monongahela traction lines for the present, at least. This much was decided at a meeting held at 2 o'clock this morning. National President Mahon, Chairman Grundy, of the United Labor league, and other leaders present counselled delay and it was finally decided to postpone action until the return from the south of W. L. Mellon, president of the Monongahela lines, when a committee will place the grievances before him and request relief. President Mahon expressed himself pleased with the result of the meeting, which was, he said, the best way out of a disagreeable tangle.

COUNTESS GETS DIVORCE.

London, March 28.—The Countess Russell was granted a divorce today upon the ground of the alleged bigamy and adultery of the earl of Russell with Mrs. Somerville. The suit was not defended. John Francis Stanly, Earl Russell, was married to Mollie Somerville, daughter of the late George Cooke, of Cumbernald, Scotland, on April 15, 1900, in Reno, Nevada. They had been living for several months previously in Nevada, where both had obtained decrees of divorce. Earl Russell obtained a divorce from Countess Russell on the ground of desertion.

HAD TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Cape Town, March 28.—The Norwegian bark Andromeda, from Glasgow, has landed a part of the crew of the Psyche, which foundered January 17. The rescued sailors were thirty days in an open boat and subsisted upon shark and albetross. Two of the members of the crew perished as a result of the exposure and the remainder were nearly dead when rescued. The Psyche's mate and five men who put to sea in the second boat are still missing.

WILL START WEEKLY PAPER

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS TO HAVE AN ORGAN.

Will Be Called the Fort Wayne Socialist and Expects to Figure in City Campaign.

It is learned tha within a very short time the social democrats of Fort Wayne expect to launch a new weekly newspaper to advocate the doctrines of that political party.

The plan is yet in embryo, but within the past few days the preliminary arrangements have been undertaken with vigor and the new organ is expected to appear in time to take a lively part in the city campaign in the support of the municipal ticket recently nominated by the social democrats. This is headed by M. H. Wefel as the nominee for mayor.

The new paper will, it is said, be called the Fort Wayne Socialist, and it will be issued from one of the printing establishments already in the city. The members of the social democracy believe the new organ will command from the first a support healthy enough to insure its stability. The question of editorial management will probably result in the selection of H. H. Haines for that position.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

There were four offenders represented at police court this morning. Three of them were present in person and the fourth had his $11 on tap. The latter was one Samuel Brown, who became involv d in a squabble with Alfred Keck, on Columbia street. Both had been drinking and when they started to make a rough house of Gebert's saloon the wagon was called. They would have got away all right then had they not renewed hostilities in the presence of the officers. At court Keck insisted that he was not drunk and that he had simply defended himself. The mayor fined him $1 and suspended judgment.

Roy Collins, aged 14, and Alanson Conn, aged 16, were arrested yesterday afternoon for drunkenness. They said their home is at Garrett and that they had come to town to have a good time. They were refused drinks at several places on Columbia street and wanted to clean out the places because of the refusal. They are both little fellows and don't look as though they could clean out spittoons. The mayor asked them where they got their liquor and they said they did not know the names of the places, but could find them. They were fined $5 each and were told that if they could find the places where they got loaded that perhaps the fine might be suspended. They went out with Officer Coling to hunt up the booze emporiums where they got full and if they are successful they will be held as witnesses against the offending saloonkeepers.

Col. R. S. Robertson reports the finding of a pocketbook containing money and papers which the owner can have upon proper identification.

The fire department was called to No. 44 Pritchard street last night, where a sofa had mysteriously caught fire. There was no damage.

Watchman Laughlin last night discovered a fire in the rear of the trading stamp store. A few buckets of water extinguished the blaze and the department was not called.

A DISCLAIMER PUT FORTH

BY RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON.

COUNT CASSINI SEES HAY

MANCHURIAN TREATY ONLY A MODUS VIVENDI.

Washington, March 28.—The Russian authorities have given definite and positive assurances to the state department that the dismissal of McLevy Brown, the high official of the Korean government, was not due in anyway to Russian influence.

The Russian ambassador, Count Cassini, had an extended conference with Secretary Hay today. The ambassador was without information as to what had been done as the Manchurian agreement. Although the general question of China was gone over, yet the chief purpose of the visit was to clear up the reports that Russia had been instrumental in the removal of Mr. Brown.

Count Cassini's visit resulted in the fullest assurance that the affair is not one in which Russia had been concerned, and that it was purely a matter of the domestic affairs of Korea, which the Korean officials had carried out according to their own desires.

During the course of the interview there was a further reference to Russia's purpose in Manchuria. This was on precisely the same lines as the ambassador had before laid down, but with more particularity. For instance it was made to appear that this particular agreement between Russia and China is really nothing more than a "modus vivendi." It is purely temporary in character according to the Russian contention.

The purpose is, according to that contention, to restore law and order under Chinese authority in Manchuria and provide for the gradual withdrawal of the Russia troops.

Secretary Hay's callers today also included Lord Pauncefote, and the German ambassador, and the Japanese minister, all of whom were concerned in the status of Chinese affairs, and particularly the final outcome of the Manchurian question. Little definite additional information was developed.

NEW TRIALS ARE GRANTED

POWERS AND HOWARD CASES TO BE REOPENED.

Kentucky Court of Appeals Sets Aside Convictions of Men Charged With Goebel Murder.

Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—The court of appeals today granted a new trial to Caleb Powers and James Howard, sentenced in the lower court to life imprisonment and death, respectively, in connection with the shooting in February, 1900, of Governor William Goebel.

In the Howard case the entire court concurred, but in the Powers decision Judges Hobson, Painter and White dissented.

The decision in the Powers case holds the Taylor pardon invalid, but orders a new trial on the ground of erroneous instructions to the jury and admission of incompetent testimony.

The Howard case is reversed because of erroneous instructions, incompetent evidence admitted in the trial and other minor points.

WAR WILL GO ON

DESPITE THE CAPTURE OF AGUINALDO.

WHAT AGONCILLO SAYS OF IT

DOES NOT BELIEVE REPORT FROM MANILA.

A NEW LEADER TO BE CHOSEN

FILIPINOS, HE SAYS, WILL HAVE INDEPENDENCE.

Paris, March 28.—A representative of the Associated Press today communicated to Agoncillo, the Filipino agent, the news of the capture of Aguinaldo. Agoncillo, who occupies a nicely furnished apartment in a house in a central Paris street, apparently surrounded by every comfort, laughed and said:

"I do not believe it. I have received nothing by cable and until I receive confirmatory advices I shall continue to ignore the news."

Asked, if the announcement was true, what effect he thought it would have on the insurrection, Agoncillo replied emphatically:

"None, except the loss of a true patriot and a clever general. The feeling of the Philippine people and their determination to fight out the struggle for independence will remain unshakable.

"I received a cablegram only yesterday which convinced me that the Philippine leaders have not modified their persistent attitude regarding the continuance of the war.

"Whatever disaffections may have taken place in favor of the Americans, the Philippine people as a whole are resolved to accept nothing short of independence."

When Agoncillo was asked what effect the capture of Aguinaldo would have on the campaign he said a council of the leading Filipinos would simply meet and elect another military chief to prosecute the war, adding that even if Aguinaldo and his general staff were all captured many able generals remain.

Agoncillo was asked who was likely to be chosen to succeed Aguinaldo and said he thought General Alejandrino might be selected, as he was a clever military leader and enjoyed the confidence of the people.

In reply to a question of the report of the Associated Press as to whether the Filipinos had enough money to continue the war indefinitely, Agoncillo smiled and replied:

BRONCHITIS

We Know is Hard to Control.

Our Vinol is Making a Wonderful Record in Curing This Dangerous Disease.

CALL AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT IT.

Here is a letter that has just come to our attention. It will interest people suffering from bronchial troubles. It is from Mr. Geo. W. Brown, of So. Hanover, N. H., and reads as follows:

"I have suffered with bronchial trouble for over a year; tried two doctors and have taken three or four kinds of medicine, none of which did me any good. At times I was so hoarse I could not speak. Then I heard of Vinol. After taking three bottles of it my voice has perfectly returned to me. I can see that in a short time I will be all right. When I began to take it I was very weak, but it has built me up and given me a good appetite."

This is what Vinol always does. This is the way Vinol accomplishes its mission of doing good.

Vinol, as we wish every one to know, owes its power of accomplishing the cures that it effects to the fact that it contains the most wonderful medicinal elements known to science for the cure of all wasting diseases, as well as being in itself a marvelous tonic. These medicinal properties exist and have heretofore been found only in cod-liver oil. Vinol contains these elements. For by a scientific process the necessary curative properties of the cod-liver oil have been separated from the fat and grease which formerly made cod-liver oil preparations so objectionable.

As long as Vinol does not contain any of the vile smelling oil, and is prepared by combining the sought-after properties with a delicate table wine, it is a most delicious and palatable preparation.

We know of what we speak when we recommend Vinol, and because we do know that Vinol does all we claim for it, we unhesitatingly endorse it, and guarantee at any time to refund the money paid for the remedy if you are not satisfied it will do all we claim for it.

AGUINALDO IN LIMBO

istered to the arch-head of an insurrection.

WAR DEPARTMENT ELATED.

Particularly in the war department did the capture of Aguinaldo cause discussion among the officials. As to the disposition to be made of the famous prisoners some of the army officers expressed the opinion that it would prove troublesome. Secretary Root said he remembered the capture of Jefferson Davis; also the arrest of William M. Tweed, both of which embarrassed the authorities. The secretary desired further advices from General MacArthur before discussing the matter in great detail.

He would say little or nothing about the disposition of Aguinaldo further than that he probably would be treated the same as other high officers of the insurgents who have been taken by the Americans in the prosecution of the war.

Army officers who have been in the Philippines were very much interested in the news and some of them discussed the military-judicial features of the case. It was pointed out that Aguinaldo could be held as a prisoner of war until the close of the war. Another phase of the question relating to the proclamations and orders of Aguinaldo tending to secure the assassination and massacre of Americans, European and friendly Filipinos without regard to their activity in the prosecution of the war on the insurgents, was discussed.

COULD CLAIM NO IMMUNITY.

It was said that in case these proclamations and orders could be proven Aguinaldo would be subject to a trial by a military commission for violation of the rules of war and he could not claim immunity, under the ordinary conduct of war.

A study of the latest atlas of the Philippine archipelago just issued by the coast survey, shows that the province of Isabella is in the extreme northern portion of the island of Luzon. Palanan is a town on the eastern coast of Isabella province, situated on a river somewhat inland, which flows into the gulf of Palanan. Between the coast and the Rio Grande, which flows northward through northern Luzon is the Sierre Mardas mountains, a coast range which is almost impassible. The Palanan and the coast towns where Aguinaldo has been hiding could only be reached by sea.

LIFE HISTORY OF AGUINALDO.

Emilio Aguinaldo, known simply by that name until the war, when he adopted the more imposing title of Senor Don Emilio Aguinaldo y Faury, was born in a nipa hut in the island of Luzon, in the old town of Cavite, near Manila, in 1872. Like himself, his father was a native of the Philippines, of full Malay blood.

When, a quarter of a century ago, the hatred of the natives of the islands for the power that held them under misrule and oppression began to take form in slumbering revolt, the Tagalo boy was toddling about the hut which was his birthplace and none knew that he was destined to make the name of Aguinaldo known as that of the leader of his people.

The ordinary Talagio boy's life is devoid of incident from the time he can walk until he marries, which may be as early as sixteen, when he is regarded as a man. Not so with Aguinaldo. His father was a native chief—an Orang Malayu—that is, a Malay with literary knowledge and having a religion and a form of culture. In this way he was distinguished from the Orang Beuna, the Malay of the soil, and from the Orang Laut, the Malay of the sea.

The chief had ambitions for his son, so, while other Tagalo boys had nothing to do or think of but eating and sleeping, and in most cases had inordinate fondness for both, Emilio Aguinaldo was taught there was something more in store for him in life—that he was to have a career—to be a chief like his father, or perhaps greater.

EMILIO TRAINED FOR CHIEF.

So when Emilio was ten years old, having reached the age when he could wear clothes with fitting dignity, his father gave him to the Spanish priests in Manila to be educated. The priests were glad to get him and train him in Spanish ways of thinking, hoping to use his influence later in behalf of Spain among the Tagalos. He was kept in the schools at Manila a short time, then sent to Madrid to be educated for the priesthood.

In Manila the Tagalo boy had begun to be acquainted with the system by which the Spanish officials oppressed the natives. At Madrid he saw more, and learned how Spain oppressed and plundered all its colonies. For two years or more he kept on studying Latin and other subjects prescribed in the course of training for priests, then surprised his tutors by telling them he did not wish to be a priest. He had determined to become a soldier.

PREFERS SWORD TO COWL.

Opposition was of no avail. A soldier he would be, and nothing else. Unwillingly his masters took from his shoulders the gown of the novitiate and invested them in the uniform of the military. Soon after this Emilio Aguinaldo was drafted into one o fthe native regiments of Luzon and became a subaltern in his native land, dominated by Spanish captains and field officers—a part of the machinery employed in the oppression of his own people.

Serving quietly as a minor officer in the Spanish ranks, he did not forget the dreams of his boyhood that at some time he should be a leader among the Tagalos. He knew his superiors were plunderers of their own government at Madrid. He saw that the Malay paid the taxes, the resident officials taking one-third of it and sending the remaining two-thirds to Madrid. He knew that the clergy received tithes from the Malay, but that church and clergy alike were for the Spanish.

Taciturn, morose, keen to observe and quick to resent—sullen and vindictive, but silent—he watched and waited and served on in the army of Spain. In 1896 he decided to wait no longer. He was then 24 years old and had been trained for years as a soldier. He decided to organize a revolt aginst Spain among the native soldiers serving with the Spanish army, and began in his own regiment. Lieutenant Alexandro, a brother Malay, became his associate in the movement. The plot was developed in secret and a plan of action agreed on.

LEADS HIS FIRST REVOLT.

This plan was announced to Spain, when, early one morning, every Spanish officer in the regiment was shot down on the parade ground, except a few insignificant lieutenants, and the Malay soldiers in the regiment hid in the tangled depths of the savannas—the broad swamps through which the soldiers of the American army have been fighting their way against this same leader of the Malays.

This was the beginning of the career of Emilio Aguinaldo on his own account as a soldier and a leader. He organized an army of between 4,000 and 5,000 natives, established headquarters, and began to make for the Spanish residents a reign of terror. On every Spaniard he was ready to vent the hatred for Spain that had been growing within him for fifteen years. He had seen the ears of his own people cut off by Spaniards who called themselves Christians. He, in turn, chopped off Spanish heads. He had seen the priests bless Spanish soldiers setting out on murderous missions against his own people, and without scruple assassinated priests and soldiers alike, only that they were Spanish. He followed out the lessons he had learned in a long training.

PRICE PUT ON HIS HEAD.

Bassillio Augusti y Davila was the political governor of the Philippine islands at that time. Rivera was captain general. Augusti offered $20,000 for the head of Aguinaldo. The answer he received to this tender was a note from the rebel leader himself:

"I need the sum you offer much and will deliver the head myself."

Augusti laughed. Ten days later he met Aguinaldo. He paid him $20,000, but did not receive the head.

The time for the meeting was a stormy night—a typhoon raging. Augusti sat in his palace engaged on a report of the condition of the island. A priest passed the sentinels at the entrance to the palace and undisturbed entered Augusti's room. He stopped just back of that official's chair with the words: "Peace be with you, my son."

When Augusti, surprised, had turned his head, the priest's mantle was dropped, and there stood Aguinaldo, in his hand a twenty-inch bolo, the terrible knife of the Malay.

"I have brought the head of Aguinaldo," said the rebel, thumbing the edge of his blade, "and I claim the reward. Hasten, else I shall have to expedite matters."

Augusti had no alternative. He opened his desk and took from it $20,000 in gold, which he gave to Aguinaldo. The latter in turn handed him a receipt, counted the money, walked backward to the door and bolted. A pistol bullet from the weapon of the enraged Augusti cut the hair over Aguinaldo's temple, but he escaped unscathed.

TAKES BRIBE TO GO AWAY.

A short time after this Captain General Polavieja offered Aguinaldo and Alexandro $200,000 each if they would leave Luzon forever. Each was to have a free pardon, also, for past offenses. The two accepted the offer, only to learn after they received the money that they were to be assassinated the following night at a festa. The next night came, but the two men engaged to kill the insurgents were found dead in their beds with knives driven through their hearts, and attached to the handle of each was a bit of paper bearing the inscription:

"Beware of the Malay's vengeance."

Polavieja resigned and returned to Spain, and Rivera going as well, Augusti became the captain general of the islands. He made no headway in the effort to subdue Aguinaldo. The revolt of the natives was growing every day, when the victory of Dewey ended Spanish power at Manila.

When Aguinaldo first revolted his followers were without arms. He subsequently armed a portion of them from the bodies of the Spanish soldiery whom they overcame with the bolo. But mysterious vessels came out of the sea bearing either arms and ammunition, and these were surreptitiously delivered to the insurgents without anyone discovering whence they came.

DEWEY MEETS AGUINALDO.

After Aguinaldo and Alexandro had received their $200,000 each from the Spaniards they quit the Philippines and went over to Honk Kong, and later to Singapore. It was when Dewey, then commodore, was preparing to leave this port to carry out the orders of the United States government to find and destroy the Spanish fleet that Dewey and Aguinaldo first met.

Howard Bray, an Englishman, whose name has been mentioned recently in cable dispatches in connection with an alleged plot to assassinate Admiral Dewey on his way home, was then at Singapore. He took Aguinaldo to Spencer Pratt, American consul general at Singapore, and made arrangements for an interview with Dewey. In that interview Aguinaldo was led to pledge himself to act in conjunction with Dewey in the expulsion of Spain from the Philippines. Subsequently the Malay leader left Singapore on a British steamship and returned to Luzon.

It was on December 14, 1897, that Aguinaldo accepted the offer of $200,000 to lease the islands, and was betrayed to death, though he escaped. From then until his return after the conference at Singapore it is not known that he was in the islands, though he was constantly in communication with the insurgents who were still fighting against Spain.

IS A MAN OF SMALL STATURE.

Aguinaldo was small of stature, dark, with quick, furtive eyes, smooth face, sharp features and alert in his manner. Had he been seen on the streets of an American city before his features became familiar through the printing of his pictures he in all probability would have been mistaken for a Japanese student or artisan, for in general build and color he strongly resembled the Japanese, as do many of the more intelligent Malays. His generalship showed itself in a resolute chin and over shot jaw. There was in his face something of the expression of a bulldog. Among the natives it was said he never slept, and whatever the verdict of history may be regarding his actions, he will be credited at least with ability in carrying out his ends, hardly to be expected in a native of a half-barbarous race. In his personality and appearance he exhibited many of the characteristics of an unfiltored race. His fondness for display and pomp was laughable but for the fact he took himself seriously. Among his own people his wisdom was regarded as something beyond comprehension, and his hold on them was through their mingled reverence and fear of him.

IT PLEASES ADMIRAL DEWEY.

New York, March 28.—Admiral Dewey was at the Albermarle hotel today and was interviewed as to the probable effect of the capture of Aguinaldo. He expressed the greatest satisfaction at the news of the capture and said that he thought that it would totally wind up the means of resistance. He also said:

"I am delighted to hear this news. Of course we had the warning a few days ago that it might occur, but it looked like a very risky undertaking, and if Funston had lost his life, everyone would have said 'I told you so.' It appears to be a very creditable piece of work on the part of Funston and in keeping with his previous exploits. It was in fact a case of fighting the devil with fire.

"If a large force had gone against Aguinaldo he would not have been found, but this was a kind of strategy of our own, though, and appears to have succeeded perfectly.

"Aguinaldo is a most amiable little fellow. He does not have the education with which he has been cedited. He was not really the brains of the insurrection.

"Babini was really the brains of the Filipino rebellion and Aguinaldo was the active leader. I admit that I did not give him credit for the abilities that he has shown, but he is certainly not a man of very great ability. One thing I wonder about is that the dispatches today from Manila describe him as 'talking freely.'

"When I first saw him he was notably reticent and a good deal of his strength came from the fact that he did not talk much. The people believed that he was invulnerable, however, and that no harm could be done to him. There was a story current, in fact, that a dozen men had stood up and fired at him as a test. I suppose there were no bullets in the guns.

"That story went everywhere. The people are intensely superstitious, and they believed that no harm could befall him. It will take some time now for the news to get around of the capture, and at first the people will refuse to believe it, but after the news does finally get around through the islands I fully believe that organized resistance will collapse. Of course there will be sporadic disorder for a long time to come, but I do not believe that there will be anything serious."

"What do you think ought to be done with Aguinaldo now?"

"Well, it seems to me that as good a thing as could be done for the present will be to send him to Guam. It is the same sort of a climate as in the Philippines and there would be no hardship in the change, but there would be no chance to do so."

What kind of matter in the newspaper for example attracts them?

The writer believes that only one thing commands the attention and respect of all classes and kinds of readers, and that is, plain, simple truth. Believing that to be the case, he requests the public's attention to the following facts:

Third. We have the only agency in this city for the sale of the best medicine to renovate and cleanse the system, and build up the body in the spring. That is a fact.

Fourth. The reason this medicine is the best for this purpose is because it comes from the Green Mountains of Vermont, and is made from the purest, most powerful herbs known to medical science. These are facts.

Fifth. It does not contain any cocaine, opium, morphine, quinine, aloes, or other dangerous drugs. This is a fact.

Sixth. It is sold by Ranke & Nussbaum under a guarantee to benefit all diseases of the blood, nerves, liver and kidneys, dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. It is the medicine for tired, weak, dragged-out people. These are facts.

Omega Oil

NEURALGIA—There is no sense in wasting words about Neuralgia. We know that it causes terrible suffering, and the darting pains are enough to drive you mad. What a sufferer wants is relief. He wants the pain to stop. He wants to be well and happy again. The way to get relief from neuralgia is to rub Omega Oil into the spot where the trouble lies. First bathe the part with hot water to open up the pores. Then give it a good, thorough rubbing with Omega Oil. This liniment will be taken up by the flesh, and penetrate to the aching nerves. It will give gratifying relief. It will soften, soothe and comfort. It will overcome and banish the pain. Plenty of people will doubt this, but their doubting does not change the facts. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

If your dealer refuses to supply you with this wonderful Swiss green liniment, the Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, for 50c. in cash, money order or stamps. 327

INSURED.

YOU insure your house against fire. You know what people would say if it burned down without insurance. They would say you were wanting in business sagacity, that you should have provided for this. Now leave house insurance and consider clothing insurance. Here the danger is even greater—not from fire, but from the chemicals and strong soaps used in the laundry. Wise women insure their finer, more delicate and perishable things against this risk, and the premium they pay is the trifling cost of Ivory Soap. That guarantees protection.

IMPROVE THE SERVICE.

A new schedule went into effect upon the Lewis street and Lakeside street car line this morning, by which a ten-minute service was inaugurated instead of the twelve-minute schedule heretofore in vogue. ARE AFTER RIGHT OF WAY.

(Bradford, O., Sentinel.)

William Driver started for Indiana Wednesday to assist General Manager A. J. Miller, of Dayton, in securing right of way and franchises for the projected Fort Wayne, Dayton and Cincinnati traction line. The line runs from Dayton to Troy; thence to Covington and here, coming in on Miami avenue; thence north to Harris Creek church, west to the Gettysburg pike and north to Webster and Versailles; thence through North Star, Celina and other points to Decatur, Ind., from whence it runs down through Portland, Winchester, Union City, Ansonia and back, forming a loop, with the junction either here or at Versailles, dependent upon the effort made by our people to secure the coveted junction point, with its manifold advantages, such as power house and terminals, which will carry with it a considerable number of employes and added population.

New cases of scarlet fever are reported at 20 Thomas street and at the corner of Greene and Oliver streets.

STICK RIGHT TO IT.

And Coffee Will "Do You" Right and Brown, if You Are Highly Organized.

It is remarkable how persistently men or women will stick to a drug through thick and thin, even after they become convinced that the drug is slowly killing them.

This is illustrated thousands of times every time. A sample case is that of F. L. Wolford, of Columbus, O., who says that all his life since a boy when he began drinking coffee, he has been anything but robust, or even in what might be termed good health. He has tried all sorts of drugs and tonics, and consulted many doctors. He quit tobacco, avoided all intoxicating drinks, stopped eating pastry, and took life easy as far as work was concerned, but the same old trouble continued and he could not get well.

He stuck to the coffee because he said, "I could not do without it. The climax came just about a year ago. I went all to pieces with nervous prostration, neurasthenia and insomnia. The physician absolutely demanded that I cease drinking coffee, and put me on Postum Food Coffee.

I very much disliked to think that I must take something in place of coffee, but to my surprise I found that Postum was so delicious and so exactly like first-class coffee in taste that I got on with it very well.

After a few days I began to notice that I craved Postum as much as I had the old coffee, and the longer I use Postum the more satisfied I become with it, until today I look upon Postum as the 'real thing' and the ordinary coffee as the 'substitute.'

I would not give one cup of Postum for all the coffee that grows in Central America, not only as a drink, but for what it has done for my health. I have built up again until I am in better health than I ever was, and owe the entire praise to Postum. It is simply a case of leaving off a poison and using a healthful food drink, containing powerful elements of nutrition.

Many among my own friends have quit coffee and begun using Postum Food Coffee.

Richard Wilhelm, 823 E. Main St., and his wife, both suffered from dyspepsia, but were cured by quitting coffee and using Postum Food Coffee.

James Neukamp, a grocer on E. Fulton St., had liver complaint. He has been greatly benefitted by leaving off coffee and taking Postum.

I can give you the names of a number of others who have either been entirely cured or greatly benefited by the use of Postum.

PLATT'S MONEY ORDER.

While the committee on finance of the senate, shortly before the recent adjournment of congress, was discussing the revenue reduction bill, the question of abolishing the stamp tax upon express money orders was brought to the attention of the committee by Senator Platt, who, as everyone knows, is the president of the United States Express company. The senators were not familiar with the money orders and Senator Platt undertook to enlighten them.

Near the capitol, in the neighborhood of the Baltimore and Ohio depot, is an office of the express company. Thither Senator Platt wended his way. When he entered the office a young clerk was behind the counter.

"I want a money order," said the senator, and the lad picked up the book of blanks.

"How much, sir?" he asked.

"Five cents," said the senator. The boy paused, looked at the would-be purchaser and repeated the sum.

"Yes," said Senator Platt, "I want a money order for 5 cents. I am the president of the company."

The latter remark settled it with the boy. He hurried into the private office of the agent. "Out here," he exclaimed, "there is an old gentleman who says he is the president of the company, and he wants a money order for 5 cents. I am afraid to give it to him for fear he will raise it."

The agent came out, recognized the senator, and a few minutes later the distinguished senators on the finance committee were examining a money order for 5 cents issued in the name of T. C. Platt.

The capture of Aguinaldo is important in one if in no other respect—it proves that he is not dead.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan can hardly be blamed for reluctance to discuss the preparations made for his death in England. It is an affair calculated to appeal to the delicacy of any man.

The engagement of Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson to Miss Emiline Griggsby is announced. This will compel the Merrimac hero to reform in the indiscriminate distribution of his kisses, or at least to be careful to avoid publicity.

His royal high jinks, the sultan of Morocco, has convinced this government that he has had no intention to snub our collector or to dodge our due bills and that the court may be approached anywhere on the road with perfect freedom. His word has been taken and the cruiser New York will not blow any of the sultan's property off the earth. We have had these Morocco-bound promises before and they always look better than they are.

The Chicago Times-Herald and the Chicago Record appear today as one publication called the Chicago Record-Herald. This change has involved one of the most notable newspaper consolidations of recent years and doubtless one that will prove beneficial to the interests consolidated. The Record has been sold by Mr. Victor F. Lawson to Mr. W. H. Kohlsaat, owner of the late Times-Herald, who has associated with him in partnership Mr. Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press and late editor of the Washington Star, who will be the editor of the Record-Herald. Mr. Lawson will continue to own and publish the Chicago News, an afternoon newspaper.

Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, is out with an announcement positively declaring that he will not be a candidate for re-election and that he will not permit the use of his name in connection with the democratic nomination. It may be that Mayor Taggart is in dreadful earnest in making his announcement, but those familiar with important incidents in Indianapolis politics will recall that two years ago Mayor Taggart made a similar declaration and with variations repeated it up to the time the democratic city convention met, when his personal desires were so greatly respected that he was again nominated. It may be that Mr. Taggart means it this time, but he is so suave and obliging that he may once more be lariated and dragged into the race. When the next democratic candidate for mayor of Indianapolis is named Mr. Taggart will be better understood.

The board of works is proceeding with some vigor in the work of cleaning the streets, but with none too much. All the streets are in need of attention and the task of cleaning them is gigantic. More in need of attention are the alleys, in which the winter's accumulation of filth is something almost inconceivable. This rubbish and refuse ought to be removed before settled warm weather comes, and in this the residents of the city should take more than a passive interest. It will be no great undertaking for each resident to clean the alleys about his premises. To do this promptly means much for the promotion of public health in Fort Wayne. To neglect it means to invite the ravages of disease.

Now that Aguinaldo has at last been captured and is a military prisoner in Manila, it may be proper to inquire what is to be done with him. If he is kept a prisoner he will be regarded by his loyal followers as a martyr. If he is exiled he will be a menace to peace in the Philippines, because he may not abandon the revolutionary business. If he is sent to Guam he will escape or be released sooner or later and make trouble. If he is tried, condemned and executed it will incense his people in the Philippines and raise a more serious outcry in this country. It might be well to bring him to this country for a lecture tour and incidentally to take a correct measure of the size of the proposition he has been up against in opposing the might of the United States. At all events, the capture of the noted Filipino chieftain will doubtless have the effect to stop hostilities, for a time at least. But what to do with the leader is a problem. Months ago it was believed by the army officers in the Philippines and the administration heads in Washington that to capture Aguinaldo would be to take possession of a very large white elephant. Perhaps the rapid disintegration of the insurgent movement has effected a change that makes it desirable to have the president of the late Filipino republic on hand. Maybe a fat office is contemplated for him.

FOR THE GRIP.

You Have Heard of Many Remedies — Did You Ever Try This One.

Everybody you meet on the streets nowadays either has just had the grip, is coming down with it or has a sure cure for it.

The disease has been a puzzle to physicians ever since its appearance several years ago and it is as much of a puzzle today as it was then. It exhibits such a variety or symptoms in different individuals and leaves such disastrous results after apparent recovery, that as yet its prevention and cure has baffled medical science.

However, there is no doubt but that the grip is catarrhal in character, and the leading symptom in nearly every case is increased secretion in the head and throat, in fact the first indications of lagrippe are those of a cold in the head which extends to the throat and lungs.

Dr. Johnson Ames advises as the safest course to pursue on the first appearance of grip symptoms to keep to the house for a day or two and take Stuart's Catarrh Tablets every hour the first day and every two hours the following day and states that this will break up the trouble before it becomes deep seated.

These catarrh tablets are antiseptic and harmless and prevent fever and the further development of grip germs and ward off the ever-present danger of pneumonia.

Dr. Gerald Simpson says: "I have found Stuart's Catarrh Tablets a pleasant and thoroughly reliable remedy for the grip, especially with elderly people with whom this prevailing disease is always dangerous; the tablets can be found at any drug store and if used freely during the first few days of the attack will break it up."

Lagrippe is a catarrhal affection, the germs are in the air and no one is proof against it, but the timely use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will prevent any serious results.

HE DENIES THAT HE IS DEAD

GABRIEL MOYER TURNS UP IN FORT WAYNE.

Garrett Junk Dealer, Supposed to Have Been Murdered at Indianapolis, Gets Mail Here.

Gabriel Moyer, the Garrett junk dealer, who was supposed to have been murdered at Indianapolis Tuesday morning, interposes a vigorous denial of the soft impeachment that he is dead. Mr. Moyer was in Fort Wayne Wednesday evening, and at 5 o'clock called at the postoffice for quite a bunch of mail which had accumulated there for him.

Jesse Allen, delivery clerk at the postoffice, is well acquainted with Moyer, who has frequent business transactions in Fort Wayne, and quite often gets mail here. It is quite evident there has been a very pronounced case of mistaken identity. Moyer's two sons conduct a shoe and clothing house at Garrett.

HEARD IT AT BLUFFTON.

In this connection the Bluffton News says that "this morning Gabriel Moyer, a Jewish junk dealer from Garrett, Ind., stepped into Henry Hunsicker's grocery. Henry threw both hands in the air, for he thought he had seen a ghost, for in the Muncie Star was a half page article and a picture of Moyer stating as a fact that his corpse had been found in a box car at Indianapolis and $400 was missing from his clothes. When Moyer was told he was dead he hustled to Ezra Levenson, an old friend, to find whether or not it was so. Ezra assured him that he was still living and by his request telephoned to his family at Garrett. It was found there that his family was almost crazed with grief and that his oldest son had gone to Indianapolis to take charge of the remains. Their joy at the discovery of their father's existence can be imagined.

"The Jew who really was dead was found in a box car in the Big Four railroad yards, about a mile east of Brightwood, Tuesday morning. Death was due to chloroform. The dead man's head was wrapped in his coat, and in his hand, still clutched and held to the nose, was a handkerchief, which had been saturated with the drug. Ten tramps, who slept in the car, were taken to the police station to await an investigation in the man's death. It seems that Moyer had been in Muncie Monday, and had left for Indianapolis with a large sum of money in his possession. A conclusion was jumped at, causing his family untold worry."

KALAMAZOO SUGAR BEET COMPANY ENTERS FIELD.

New Concern Will Pay $4 Per Ton for Beets and Wants 500 Acres Pledged—A Large Concern.

F. J. Henty, secretary and treasurer of the Kalamazoo Beet Sugar company, of Kalamazoo, Mich., is in the city, and is actively engaged among the farmers in the vicinity endeavoring to secure assurances of 500 acres for the cultivation of the beets. The company will pay $4 per ton for the beets f. o. b. Fort Wayne, or points along the line, and will furnish the seed, to be paid for out of the fall shipment of beets. The price which the company is willing to pay is 25 cents higher than that offered by the Continental company, of Cleveland, and as an additional inducement the company will keep an agricultural expert in Fort Wayne during the growing season to instruct the farmers in the proper method of growing the beets.

The Kalamazoo company was organized three years ago and it operates an extensive plant, grinding on an average of 500 tons of beets per day, and last year they manufactured over 4,000 tons of sugar. The company chemist sent here some time ago to examine the ground found that it was excellently suited to beet sugar culture, and that the average return per acre to the farmer would be about $80.

Herman Felts has been selected by Mr. Henty as agent for this territory and he will look after the company's business at this end of the line.

FRANK L. HILL DIED AT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

He Had Been Granted a Pension Wednesday—Joseph Kramer is No More—Other Deaths.

Frank L. Hill, of Oakwood, Ohio, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's hospital, where he had been a patient for some weeks. He was twenty-eight years of age and death was due to dysentery.

Hill served during the Spanish-American war as a private in company G, Second Ohio volunteers, and through the earnest efforts of Senator C. W. Fairbanks, the dying soldier was granted a pension Wednesday, the accrued amount being $150. Senator Fairbanks had the case made a special one upon the representation of Col. D. N. Foster that Mr. Hill was liable to die at any time as the result of disease contracted in the army. Mr. Hill's voucher for his pension money was signed Wednesday and immediately forwarded to Indianapolis.

The surviving relatives include the parents, a brother and five sisters. One of these sisters is Mrs. Lydia Smith, a professional nurse at one time attached to the hospital department of the school for feeble minded. Mrs. Smith resides at 53 East Berry street.

The remains were removed to Schone & Vrith's undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. They will be shipped to Oakwood, Ohio, this evening.

KRAMER.

Joseph Kramer, well-known among the printing fraternity of Fort Wayne as a pressman, died at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kramer, 49 Madison street.

Mr. Kramer was thirty-one years of age, and has for some time been a sufferer from tuberculosis of the throat, which resulted in his death. For fourteen years he has been connected with the press room of the Journal-Gazette, and during the past two years has been foreman of that department. Mr. Kramer was a young man of high character, exemplary in habits and had a very wide circle of friends, to whom the news of his death will be a painful shock.

The funeral services will be held Monday morning at an hour to be announced later.

DAMMEYER.

August Dammeyer, sixty-three years of age, died late Wednesday afternoon at his home, 213 Hanna street, from a complication of diseases. Mr. Dammeyer was a native of Germany, but came to America in boyhood.

For nearly fifty years he has been a resident of Fort Wayne, and was highly esteemed. Surviving are the widow and three children.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. Jacob Miller officiating.

GENET.

Charles Genet, a chairmaker, died last evening at St. Joseph's hospital from paralysis. He was thirty-three years of age and unmarried. There are, so far as known, no relatives in the city.

Genet was formerly a base ball player. He was stricken with paralysis last fall and was sent to the county infirmary. Five weeks ago he was removed to the hospital. The remains were taken this morning to Peltier's undertaking establishment, awaiting burial directions from a sister in Pennsylvania, who has been notified by telegraph of her brother's death.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

"I am not Well enough to Work."

How often these significant words are spoken in our great mills, shops, and factories by the poor girl who has worked herself to the point where nature can endure no more and demands a rest! The poor sufferer, broken in health, must stand aside and make room for another.

The foreman says, "If you are not well enough to work you must leave, for we must put some one in your place."

Standing all day, week in and week out, or sitting in cramped positions, the poor girl has slowly contracted some deranged condition of her organic system, which calls a halt in her progress and demands restoration to health before she can be of use to herself or any one else.

To this class of women and girls Mrs. Pinkham proffers both sympathy and aid. When these distressing weaknesses and derangements assail you, remember that there is a remedy for them all. We have on record thousands of such cases that have been absolutely and permanently cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restoring to vigorous health and lives of usefulness those who have been previously sorely distressed. Here is one of them.

Miss Junglas' First Letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—As I have heard and read so much about your wonderful medicine I thought I would write to you and tell you all about my sickness. I have been sick for four years with womb trouble, have whites, sick headache, pain in my back, and in right and left side of abdomen, feeling of fullness in vagina, am dizzy, weak and nervous. I have used many patent medicines, but found very little relief. Please give me your advice."—Miss Katie P. Junglas, New Salem, Mich. (May 4th, 1900.)

Miss Junglas' Second Letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I write to thank you for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. It is now six years since I was taken sick. I had falling of the womb and ovarian trouble. I suffered untold pains, sometimes was so bad that I thought I could not live. I used the Vegetable Compound faithfully and am now well. If you like, you may use my letter for the benefit of others."—Miss Katie P. Junglas, New Salem, Mich. (May 12th, 1900.)

$5000 REWARD Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time expressed the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonial is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission. TO THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Your committee on isolation hospital realizes more and more the urgent need of a public hospital for the treatment and detention of persons suffering from contagious disease within the city of Fort Wayne. Since your committee was appointed, an epidemic of infection has appeared in various parts of the city which has worked a hardship upon those who happened to come within its influence. An immunity, which can be largely attributed to good fortune alone, has for once stood between a large number of our citizens and the imposition of home quarantine with its attendant evils, in the way of inconvenience, discomfort and pecuniary loss. At the present time there is not a roof in the city of Fort Wayne which would afford shelter to strangers or homeless residents who might be found on our streets suffering from diphtheria, scarlet fever or smallpox. Should a guest at one of our hotels be thus infected the place would be subject to closure and quarantine by order of the health authorities. In vain might the proprietor demand that the patient be removed from the hotel; with no place open to receive him the patient would remain as his sole guest. A servant in one of the homes who develops an infectious disease subjects the house to quarantine, while it imprisons or exiles the family unless the patient be removed.

With a view to obtaining information pertaining to the successful working of existing plans for the care of infectious patients your committee has written to the health authorities of a large number of cities asking for details as to methods in vogue. A considerable number has responded, a goodly portion of which have little to suggest except plans in contemplation. Peoria, Ill., has heretofore adopted the system of utilizing an old building during the epidemic and then burning it down. This has not proved satisfactory and an isolation hospital is now under construction.

By far the best system of which we obtained information exists in Toronto, Canada. This is an extensive institution built and operated by the city, having a running expense in 1899 of $14,925.

We believe that the city should build and operate a hospital for contagious diseases, preferably in conjunction with a city hospital, for the treatment of charity patients, which are now treated at public expense in the two hospitals of the city. The money thus paid for the care of the indigent sick would go far toward supporting a city hospital for the purpose of charity and contagion.

It occurred to the committee that arrangements might be effected with one of our present hospitals by which a building might be erected adjacent to theirs and operated by the hospital management for the city. The operating expenses would therefore probably be materially lessened, as the outlay would be little in the periods when the city is free from contagion.

Both hospitals have been approached on this point. From St. Joseph's we get the information that their force of nurses would not warrant their undertaking the additional work. Hope hospital has given no definite decision.

The necessary expense connected with the construction and operation of a hospital suited to the city's needs will become apparent as its increasing usefulness becomes appreciated and utilized. As a start in the proper direction we believe that the city should procure an available house, dilapidated though it might be, even though it might not accommodate more than eight or ten persons. Such a place could be quickly put in order for the reception of urgent cases and the necessary extensions would follow as the growing needs of the city would indicate. Such conservative course would provide facilities at once at small expense to the city while it would also obviate the possible needless extravagance entailed by building in advance of the demands.

The running expense would be met to a considerable degree by funds received from those who would be able to pay for hospital services. Those who are unable to pay should be taken care of at public expense. The going to the hospital should be optional with those who can be taken care of elsewhere should they prefer to be subject to the regulation quarantine outside the hospital.

We recommend the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Commercial club of Fort Wayne petition the city council to make the necessary appropriation for the creation of an isolation hospital for the care of contagious diseases in Fort Wayne.

COMMUNICATION.

DAYTON, O., March 25, 1901.

To the Honorable Members of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gentlemen: My application for a franchise for a street and interurban railway having been submitted to your honorable body some time since, and your committee after very careful deliberation, having recommended at your meeting of February 12, 1901, a grant under conditions more strict than have been required of any similar railway; and having failed to hear of any action upon said committee's recommendation, I hereby request that you act upon the same at once, if you desire said railway constructed.

It is absolutely necessary that this matter be determined immediately.

Hoping that I may speedily learn of favorable action upon the same, I remain,

Respectfully,

L. B. M'ILHENNY.

On motion referred to committee of the whole.

PETITION.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

Gentlemen: The undersigned, owners of property near the intersection of Baker street and Fairfield avenue, in the city of Fort Wayne, respectfully petition that an electric light be placed at the intersection of said streets. It is very near the railroad, a number of streets converge at that point, and the lights that are now near such intersection do not properly light up such streets and alleys.

COMMUNICATION.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 14, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gentlemen: It comes to the knowledge of this body that in numerous times throughout the United States there are being paraded upon the streets banners bearing the information that all the way from 8,000 to 15,000 mechanics and laboring men of all kinds are wanted in this city; and that there is more than enough work for all. Please kindly allow us to contradict such statements in the most unequivocal terms. While it is true that the building industry here is quite active at the present time, there are also many more than enough laborers and mechanics to do all the work at this time and in prospect. More men are arriving every day. There are numerous cases up to date where people have arrived here practically stranded and were unable to procure any kind of employment. Will your honorable body kindly bring this matter before your people by the best means at your command and inform them that unless men coming into this country are well supplied with capital they will undoubtedly find themselves in far worse condition than they can possibly be as now situated, the enticing statement paraded on streets notwithstanding. If it is possible we desire you to inform us that in cities where such advertisements have been displayed, at whose instigation it has been done.

Thanking you in advance for anything you may do to aid the people of your city to a correct understanding of conditions here and thereby assisting us to keep this city from becoming overcrowded with people who have no means of a livelihood, and requesting that you write us for any information desired, we are, gentlemen,

Very sincerely yours,

Seattle Building Trades' Council.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONTRACTS AND FRANCHISES.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 25, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the Common Council.

Gentlemen: We, your committee on contracts and franchises, to whom was referred the contract entered into by and between the board of public works and Henry F. Schnelker, Lycurgus S. Null, Lewis C. Hunter, Charles W. Orr and William S. O'Rourke, would recommend that the same be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The words "or elsewhere" should be stricken out in the last paragraph of this section. The right of way should be changed to read as follows: On New Haven avenue from the corporate limits of said city to Fletcher avenue, north on Fletcher avenue to Maumee avenue, west on Maumee avenue to Walton avenue, north on Walton avenue to Lake avenue, on Lake avenue to St. Joe road, on St. Joe road to the east end of the Maumee river bridge, on Maumee river bridge from the east end to the west end thereof on Columbia street from the west end of the Maumee bridge to Calhoun street.

That section 8 be stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof. Section 8. It is also agreed by and between the parties to this contract that the said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns shall permit the tracks, poles and wires herein authorized to be laid and maintained, to be used by any city interurban or suburban railway company carrying passengers, baggage, light express and United States mail, whenever the board of public works and common council of said city, party of the first part, by contract approved by ordinance shall have granted, authorized and permitted any such company to operate any such railroad over and along the tracks of said second parties, their successors and assigns.

As compensation in the way of rental to said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, for the use of their said railroad and the poles and wires thereto belonging, by any such city interurban or suburban railway company receiving a franchise over the right of way of any portion thereof as authorized in section eighteen, said second parties, their successors and assigns shall receive from each of said companies, as authorized by said first party, one-half of the actual cost of original construction of said part of said road as is used by any such company within the corporate limits of the city, which cost of construction shall include the cost of the first pavement hereafter ordered by the board of public works, on any of said streets, so occupied, for the purpose of a city interurban or suburban business; also that any company or companies so authorized by the board of public works and the common council to run their cars over the tracks of said second parties, their successors and assigns, shall from and after occupancy of the same, pay an equal amount of the cost of maintenance, repairs taxes and assessments of the part so used and occupied, and also of the cost of removing the tracks, poles and wires of said second party, to another part of the streets occupied, if ordered to be done by the board of public works and common council as hereafter provided, and also a reasonable sum for propelling cars.

Provided, however, that if power is furnished to any such company or companies by said second parties, their successors and assigns, for a stipulated price, then in that case the cost of construction and maintaining poles and wires shall not be included in the item or rental expenses of said second party.

And provided further, that such expenses shall not include the annual franchise tax collected by said first party, or any other expense growing out of any obligation of said second party that relates alone to the cars, building of depots or any regulation thereof.

The said city interurban or suburban railway companies so authorized to operate cars over and along the tracks of said second parties or any part thereof as herein provided, shall pay the charges for the use thereof as follows: One-half the cost of the original construction of such part of the road of said second parties, their successors and assigns, as is authorized to be used, to be paid for in cash, such payment to be a condition precedent to the taking possession of such part of said road, authorized by the board of public works and the common council.

Provided, however, that if the said second parties and the company to which said grant is made do not agree to the original cost of construction of such art of the road as is to be used, within thirty days from the granting of the right to use such part of said road, then such use shall be permitted for such an amount as shall be fixed and determined as one-half of the original cost of the construction of the same, in an action instituted by either of said parties in the Allen circuit court of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, and pending such controversy of suit, such suburban or interurban company shall have the right to use the tracks authorized by the board of public works and the common council, upon executing a bond in such amount and with such security as shall be approved by said court, conditioned for the payment to said second parties, their successors and assigns, of the amount determined upon final judgment rendered in said court as being one-half of the original cost of construction of such part of the said road occupied and used, including therein one-half the original cost of first pavement that may have been made by said second parties, their successors and assigns, over and along such part; that payment of one-half of the accruing costs and expenses growing out of repairs and maintenance as herein provided shall be promptly paid at the end of each month.

If any such city interurban or suburban railroad company as may be hereafter authorized as herein provided to use the tracks of the railroad of the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, shall be in default for a period of ninety (90) days in making any payment herein provided, then their rights to use the tracks of the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, shall cease.

And, provided further, that if said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, cannot furnish power to propel the cars of such city interurban or suburban roads or they may be unable to agree on the reasonable cost of such power, then in that event, the said city interurban or suburban lines, so authorized by the board of public works and the common council shall have the right to construct and maintain feed and trolley wires on the poles of said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, in said city of Fort Wayne, and the compensation for the use of the poles for the construction and maintenance of said wires be as hereinbefore provided for the use of the tracks.

That the party of the first part reserves the right to require the said parties of the second part, their successor and assigns to remove their said tracks to any part of said streets or avenues hereinbefore mentioned without any expense to said first party, and if upon written notice by said first party to said second parties, their successors and assigns, to make any such changes, a refusal to do so, shall authorize the work to be done by said first party, and the cost of making the removal shall be paid by said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, to the city on demand, and the collection thereof enforced as any other valid debt and attorney's fees.

Section 9, amended to read "iron poles" on all streets within the city limits.

Section 13. The second sentence should read, the tracks of the said company, party of the "second part."

Section 18 should be added and read as follows: It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract, their successors and assigns, that the party of the first part herein reserves the absolute right to grant to any person, company or corporation a franchise for the purpose of constructing a city interurban or suburban street railroad over the right of way herein granted or any part thereof after four months from the approval of this contract and before occupancy of the same or any part thereof by said second party. Said first party further reserves the right to grant to any person, company or corporation a franchise for a city interurban or suburban railroad over same right of way of any part thereof herein specified after such occupancy of same by said second parties, their successors and assigns, provided that such grant shall authorize the use and occupancy according to terms and conditions provided in section 8, and, provided further, that if said grant is made to any person, company or corporation after four months and before occupancy by said second party that said second party in that case shall have the right to use and occupy said right of way according to section 8 of this contract.

And it is further agreed that said second party shall not use any portion of this right of way under section eight (8) unless they shall construct, maintain and operate an interurban line as hereinbefore provided between the cities of Fort Wayne and New Haven, Indiana.

Parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, obligate themselves to run one extra car in addition to those required of interurban service and such other cars as are necessary to provide the proper and sufficient city service.

It is further agreed by the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns that they are to accept transfer tickets from all city, interurban or suburban lines upon an equal division of the fare provided for in the city of Fort Wayne; conditioned, however, that such other lines shall accept transfers from the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, upon the same conditions.

It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract that all rights, privileges, conditions, limitations and obligations of the second parties shall extend to and be binding on their successors and assigns.

It is agreed by and between the parties of this contract that in the construction of the said railroad, none of the rights and privileges herein granted shall vest in the parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, until said parties of the second part, their successor and assigns, shall have constructed their interurban line from New Haven, Indiana, to the corporate limits of the city of Fort Wayne.

It is further agreed by and between the parties to this contract that the party of the first part is authorized and empowered to grant a franchise to any person, company or corporation, to occupy and use any part of said city, interurban or suburban railroad that may hereafter come within the limits of the city of Fort Wayne by annexation of territory by the common council, provided that such use shall be upon the terms and conditions provided in section 8 of this contract.

It is understood between the parties of this contract that the right of way herein granted to the said parties of the second part, their successors and assigns, from Walton avenue to Calhoun street is the right of way that was heretofore, by contract bearing date of May 21st, 1900, approved by ordinance passed by the common council, on the 30th day of June, 1900, granted to J. H. Simonson, Lewis J. McGillya, Edward White, James M. McKay, John W. White, Ashbel S. Coverdale, Christian C. Schlatter, William Geake, Franklin P. Wilt, William Keough, Perry E. Smith, Henry S. Thayer and John W. Olds by party of the first part, and said first party in granting the franchise herein agreed upon does so under and by virtue of the authority and power reserved unto itself in section 16 of said franchise to said J. H. Simonson, Lewis J. McGillya, Edward White, James M. McKay, John W. White, Ashbel S. Coverdale, Christian C. Schlatter, William Geake, Franklin P. Wilt, William Keough, Perry E. Smith, Henry S. Thayer and John D. Olds.

It is further agreed by and between said parties to this contract, that the party of the second part as evidence of good faith, covenants and agrees to deposit the sum of $2,000.00 in cash with the comptroller of the city, to be forfeited to said first party as stipulated damages, provided that said second party fails to comply with the terms of said agreement, and provided further, that if said cash deposit is not made as herein provided within four months from the approval of this contract then the same to be null and void.

When amended as above, we would recommend that the ordinance be passed.

ABOUT BASE BALL.

The Western Base Ball association concluded its business session last night about 5 o'clock and an hour later all the magnates had departed for their respective homes well satisfied with their two days' work. There was little business of importance done yesterday after The Sentinel went to press and, as predicted, the league agreement was drawn for three years and signed by all the representatives. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution to conform to the class A requirements of the National league and a new form of contract, also made to conform to the new conditions, was adopted.

The question of adopting an official ball was discussed and it is more than probable that the Reach ball will be selected. The Reach ball differs from the Spaulding ball, heretofore used in the Inter-State, in that it is livelier and more conducive to run-getting. The association believes that the public wants to see clean hitting and good base running as much as it wants to see good battery work and sharp infielding; the matter was left open, however, for future settlement.

Another thing taken up was the consideration of Bobby Quinn's interest since the disbanding of the Inter-State had annulled all agreements which that league had made with Bobby. Five members of the new organization, however, had pledged themselves at the Columbus meeting to pay Bobby the sum of $500 provided he could accomplish certain things. Quinn faithfully fulfilled his part of the compact and the new members of the association agreed that this organization was morally bound to fulfill the other side of the contract with the result that a motion was passed providing that the Western association pay Bobby Quinn the sum of $500 on May 15 in accordance with the past agreements and services rendered.

Now it is up to the various clubs to secure players. Manager Miller says he is very well satisfied with the material he has at hand with the exception that he needs a little more strength in the pitcher's box and he will, of course, strengthen his team in every way possible. He believes that the new condition of things will make good players more anxious than before to get into Class A and will bide his time while keeping his eyes wide open. Within a week he expects to have a list to give out that will make some of the other clubs open their eyes.

BIG BILL OF COSTS.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 28.—There is some talk among the hot-headed ones of bringing suit for damages against the people responsible for Wheeling being dumped by the Inter-State league, but the probability that the move would not result in anything but a big bill of costs is so great that it is not likely anything will be done. Wheeling fans are confident a mistake was made in admitting Marion in place of Wheeling, especially as for the first time this city was in a position to play Sunday ball. An effort is being made to form an Ohio-Pennsylvania league, but so far without success. Mansfield, Wheeling, Canton, Youngstown, New Castle, Erie, Sharon and Ashtabula are on the proposed circuit.

ANDERSON INDIGNANT.

Anderson, Ind., March 28.—The Anderson Athletic association will probably sue the Western association, successor to the Inter-State base ball league, for the cost of the franchise which Anderson held until deprived of it in the reorganization at Fort Wayne Tuesday night. Indianapolis is blamed for Anderson's loss and it is declared that Watkins, of Indianapolis, will not be allowed to play his Sunday games in this city. The talk is revived today of an Indiana league, to include Anderson, Muncie, Logansport, Lebanon, Wabash and Kokomo.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Charles Zimmer has reconsidered his determination not to play ball any more and will again be with Pittsburg this year.

* * *

Harry Criss, of Toledo, has applied for a positon as umpire with the new league and President Billy Meyer has his application under advisement. Criss umpired a number of games last summer and gave good satisfaction.

* * *

Tuck Turner, Toledo's first baseman last year, who signed with Colorado Springs, of the Western league, wants to play in Toledo again this year. Turner said he thought he could get more money out west than he could here, but he is under contract and must play there; therefore Tuck is sore. There will be a whole lot of sore ex-Inter-State players before many moons. Like the dog in the fable who saw the reflection of a piece of meat in the water, that looked larger than the piece in his mouth, and dropping the material for the shadow, lost all, so a lot of ex-Inter-Staters who went out west because of possibly bigger salary, will wish they had held on to what they had. The new Westetrn association will be able to pay larger salaries than the Western league on account of less expense, and it is safe to say a whole raft of former Inter-State players, now associated with the Western league, would like to do the prodigal act.

* * *

Marion yesterday signed George Nill, of this city. The Sentinel on Tuesday called attention to the fact that any club might go farther and fare worse than by signing him, and Frank Biosier acted on the suggestion and picked him up. Young Nill is certainly a comer.

* * *

Not counting the tributary population, the Western league will have but 80,000 more population to draw from than the Western association, while they will have a mileage of over 13,000 miles against our 4,600. The Western league has a larger mileage than the National league.

* * *

The Shamrocks will play in Richmond May 19, June 23 and August 11, all Sunday games. Last year the same clubs drew 1,700 people to the grand stand one Sunday.

Lima, Ohio, will not play ball until June, when a handsome new park will be dedicated by the street car company. The Shamrocks will play the opening game.

Manager Byram, of the crack Richmond team, is endeavoring to arrange a trip for the Richmonds and Shamrocks to the south this season. The trip will take in towns in Tennessee, Georgia and Louisiana. The Richmond team was south last year and the trip was a financial success.

* * *

E. K. Dorr tells the Indianapolis Press that Fort Wayne will have Sunday ball and that no more base ball cases will be taken into the circuit court. This will be a bit of welcome news to the local club owners, who did not quite know where they were at.

* * *

Anderson is out just $1,050 in cash by reason of the base ball dump.

* * *

Fort Wayne is the next to the smallest city in the Western association circuit. Marion is the smallest.

* * *

In the new circuit there will be but two sleeping car jumps, they being from Louisville and Indianapolis to Grand Rapids.

* * *

Manager Strobel has signed Al Pardee, the star pitcher of last year's Wheeling club. Pardee has speed and curves and will be a tower of strength on the Toledo club. Addie Joss has been located by Strobel and he will probably be signed.

* * *

Bob Dickson says that the people are mistaken in the American league; that it's not what it's cracked up to be.

* * *

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, March 28.—Early business in corn was light and the tone of the market a trifle easier on clearing weather, improved grading of fresh arrivals and reported freer country offerings. May opened unchanged at 42½c, touched 42¾@42⅝c and reacted to 42⅝c. Receipts were 183 cars, 37 of contract grade.

Wheat was dull but steady and the late advance was held fairly well. Steady cables were a help, but liberal receipts and the Price Current report declaring crop conditions good caused a slight reaction. May opened a shade to ⅛c lower at 75½@75⅝c and sold to 76⅛@75⅞c. Local receipts were 68 cars, none of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 363 cars against 317 last week and 496 a year ago.

Oats opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 29c to 29⅛c and ruled practically unchanged during the fore part of the session. Receipts were 164 cars.

Business in provisions was extremely light. The market opened firm on light hog receipts, and higher prices at the yards, but eased later on selling by packers and local operators. May pork opened 2½c higher at $15.75 and declined to $15.45; May lard opened a shade up at $8.07½ and sold 4 to $8.02½, and May ribs unchanged at $8.00, closing to $7.95.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—March, 76⅛c; April, —c; May, 75⅞@76c.

Corn—March 41½c; May, 42⅞c.

Oats—March, 28c; May, 29¼c.

Pork—March, $15.35; May, $15.67½; July, $15.67½.

Lard—March, $8.10; May, $8.02½; July, $7.95@7.97½; Sept., $7.97½.

Ribs—March, $7.92½; May, $7.92½; July, $7.82½; Sept., $7.77½@7.80.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.07; No. 1, $1.35½@1.36; May, $1.34¾@1.35; Sept., $1.14@1.16.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, March 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 10,000, market steady to strong; butchers stock strong and active. Good to prime steers, $4.95@6.00; poor to medium, $3.70@4.85; stockers and feeders, $3.10@4.75; cows, $2.65@4.60; heifers, $2.75@4.60; canners, $1.90@2.90; bulls, $2.75@4.40; calves, $4.25@5.75. Texas fed steers, $4.90@5.90. Texas grass steers, $3.90@4.90; Texas bulls, $2.75@3.75.

Hogs—Receits today, 40,000; tomorrow 18,000; left over, 5,000; market steady, closing stronger; top, $6.15. Mixed and butchers, $5.95@6.15; good to choice heavy, $6.00@6.12½; rough heavy, $5.80@5.95; light, $5.80@6.05; bulk of sales, $5.95@6.02½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 28.—The stock market lacked a definite tone at the opening, prices showing slight variations both above and below yesterday's closing. Business was large and well distributed. Six thousand shares of Erie were sold at prices both ½ above and as much below yesterday's closing. Northern Pacific rose to 94 on the purchase of 3,800 shares. The United States Steel corporation's stocks were dealt in in the unlisted department for the first time and 5,000 shares of the commons were sold at from 43¾ to 43⅝, and 6,000 shares of the preferred brought from 92 to 93½.

The irregularity of the London market was reflected in the dullness in the international stocks here.

Room traders offered large amounts of Sugar and Burlington, which lowered them a point and caused a reaction in all steel stocks. St. Paul's initial gain of a point was wiped out at 1. Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville, Erie second preferred, Great Northern preferred, Iowa Central common and preferred, Wabash preferred, Delaware and Hudson and Rubber preferred yielding from 1 to 2 points. A subsequent strong recovery in Burlington and Sugar cancelled their losses and there was a development of strength in other stocks which had a momentary sustaining effect on the general list.

Union Pacific, United States Leather common and preferred, Consolidated Gas, Wheeling and Lake Erie first and second preferred, Colorado Fuel and Erie common were advanced 1 to 3½, while Pittsburg, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis got up 2½. The higher level of prices was not well maintained, room traders showing an inclination to take profits on spasmodic rallies.

Concerted action by the bulls in a few leading stocks caused prices in the general list to advance in sympathy.

Burlington sold up to 170. Northern Pacific to 95½, and Union Pacific to 95. Enormous purchases of Wheeling and Lake Erie stocks lifted them 2½ and 3½, the latter in the second preferred.

Manhattan was pushed up 2 points and Brooklyn Transit rose sympathetically, but Metropolitan Street Railway was sluggish.

United States Steel stocks rose to above the opening high prices, and the stocks of the constituent companies was also better.

Lackawanna jumped 2½. There was a notable weakness in Pennsylvania, which lost 1½, and Rubber common and preferred 2¼ and 3¼ respectively.

Bonds were irregular.

ANDREW DORNTE ARRESTED

STOLE S. F. SWAYNE'S HORSE AND BUGGY SUNDAY.

The Lad Had Been Keeping the Horse in a Vacant Barn in the West End—Bad Youngster.

At 2:30 this afternoon Samuel F. Swayne recovered the horse and carriage stolen from his barn last Sunday night, and Andrew Dornte, a fourteen-year-old lad living at 230 West Washington street, is locked up in the police station, having confessed to the theft. Several days ago Dornte was arrested by Detective Coling for having stolen Evangelist Harter's horse from his barn and driven it about the city at night on several occasions. Dornte cried to be let go and was released on the promise that he would present himself before the mayor for reprimand the next morning. He did not come, but later his mother came and begged so hard for her wayward boy that the matter was dropped. The officers, however, got a tip yesterday that the Swayne horse was somewhere in the vicinity, and it was learned that Dornte had been trying to buy some oats. After noon today Officer Romy and another policeman went out to the west end and found the horse in a barn near the Dornte home, the house on the lot being unoccupied. The lad was then arrested and brought down. He denied all knowledge of how the horse came there, but after Detective Coling and Officer Romy had him in the sweat box for a while he said he had caught the horse on the road near the Bass farm this morning and had just brought him to town. Coling then took hold of the boy again and presently he confessed that he had stolen the horse himself on Sunday night. During all this time the poor beast was without food, although the young miscreant says he gave it water.

Dornte is a bad case and has given the police lots of trouble before. He is the lad who has taken Mr. Harter's horse on various occasions, he broke into the Washington street school house, took a lot of pictures in the west end, recently smeared a new house all over with paint, has sent in a number of false alarms of fire and has been in every sort of trouble imaginable, and is the ringleader of a tough gang of boys who have made life miserable for west enders for many months. He will be kept in the police station until morning, when he will be taken before the mayor and an effort will be made to send him to the reform school. Other arrests will follow, as the police are determined to break up the gang if they have to send them all to Plainfield.

INSTANTLY KILLED

W. E. BROWER DIES IN THE PERFORMANCE OF DUTY.

CONDUCTORS' GRAND BALL

EVENT SLATED FOR APRIL 9 AT ELKTRON HALL.

LAFAYETTE IS AMBITIOUS

WANTS WABASH SHOPS REMOVED TO THAT CITY.

W. E. Brower, formerly of this city, was instantly killed in the railway yards at Logansport Wednesday afternoon. The young man was employed as a yard conductor by the Panhandle and met death while in the performance of that duty. Just how he was killed his relatives here have not been informed. The remains were brought to this city today at 11:45 o'clock over the Wabash road and were immediately taken to the home of the bereaved parents, No. 58 Barthold street, from whence the funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. Services will be held at the United Brethren church at 1:30 o'clock and interment will be made in the Brower cemetery, seven miles out on the Leo road. The deceased was twenty-five years old and single. He went to Logansport several years ago to work on the road and for some time was a brakeman in the road service. When the force of trainmen was reduced, on account of a falling off of traffic, Mr. Brower was offered a position in the yards, which he accepted.

MOVES TO FORT WAYNE.

Claim Agent Harry Meirse, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana company, has transferred his herdquarters from Grand Rapids to this city and will soon be given an office in the Pennsylvania company's buildings. Mr. Meisse is well known here and his numerous friends will be glad to learn that he is to become a resident of Fort Wayne.

MR. HARBER VERY SICK.

Peter Harber, the machinist, is lying very ill with pneumonia at his home, on South Hanna street. Yesterday it was feared that he could not survive, but he rallied and may recover, though he is still in a dangerous conditoin. Mr. Harber has worked in the Pittsburg shops since March, 1882, and is one of the most skillful workmen in that establishment. He worked last Monday, complaining then of only a slight cold.

MOVING TO ALLEGHENY.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knight are preparing to move to Allegheny, Pa., which city will be their home in the future. Mr. Knight has been appointed to a responsible position in the shops of the Pennsylvania company in that city. He was for a number of years employed in the car department of the western division and for three or four years served as an inspector of new cars as they were being builded at the various car works other than those of the company.

CONDUCTORS' ANNUAL BALL.

The annual ball of Wayne division, No. 119, Order of Railway Conductors, will be held this year at the O. A. R. hall, in the Elektron building, on the night of April 9. The conductors have, very wisely, called the ladies to their assistance and Kekionga division, No. 51, Ladies' auxiliary to the O. R. C., will participate as hostesses at the ball. Provisions will be made for those who do not dance, one of the side features being a progressive pedro game. The affair will be enjoyable, as are all the social functions of the two orders.

THEY WANT SHOPS.

Lafayette Journal: "A citizen has discovered that the Wabash railroad can be induced to move its shops to this city by the payment of a cash bonus of $200,000 and the donation of forty acres of land. He does not think that this would be a big price for the shops and points to the fact that $130,000 was paid for the Monon shops without any subsequent regret. He has already selected a site for the Wabash shops, locating them east of the Wabash railroad and north of Greenbush street on land that was once the property of Robert Heath. The Wabash railroad at one time made a bid on this land, but the offer was not accepted. It is a well known fact that the company has twice endeavored to purchase land in this city on which to locate its shops, but both times withdrew from the market because it thought that the price demanded for the land was too high. People have since realized the mistake that was made years ago, but no opportunity has ever offered to correct it. The shops used by the road at Andrews for a number of years have been abandoned and the buildings once used are falling into decay and ruin. The principal shops of the system are maintained in Fort Wayne. Lafayette would be a convenient location for the shops, as it is not far from the center of the system, and there are other advantages that the city might use as arguments in making an effort to secure the shops whenever an opportunity offers. Time was when Lafayette was one of the most important division points on the road. There are indications that the importance of the location is being recognized and that Lafayette is to become something better than a mere stopping point. Surveys are now being made with a view to putting in coal chutes, and it is understood that the company is figuring on putting in its own water supply. The present coaling station is now at Buck Creek, but as all of the trains are compelled to stop here, it is believed that valuable time can be saved by coaling the engines here while the trains are discharging baggage and passengers."

THEY RETURN HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Platter have returned to Fort Wayne and are now looking about for a house with a view to settling down for good. Mr. Platter is a passenger fireman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road. Until this week he had a run on the north end of the southern division of the road, having a lay-over in Grand Rapids. He has been transferred to the south end, with headquarters in this city. Mr. Platter is glad to get back to Fort Wayne.

STRUCK WITH A BAT.

Andrew Ryan, an employe of the Olds Wagon company, will be unable to work for a few days. Yesterday, while playing ball with some friends, he was struck above the right eye with a bat, which slipped from the hands of one of the boys. The skin was burst open for a considerable space and Dr. W. M. Enslen was called to stitch the wound. The unfortunate young man is seventeen years old and the son of Andrew Ryan, a well known employe of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops.

A BALKY ENGINE.

Bluffton Banner: "Engine 28 on the Clover Leaf, which pulled the westbound passenger today at noon, is known to railroad men as the 'Calamity Jane.' This name was given the engine on account of its propensity to lay down in the middle of a lonesome stretch of track and refuse to work. No amount of doctoring with a monkey wrench and profanity will make the 'Calamity Jane' move on when one of these spells overtakes her and another engine has to be called. The trainmen receive a certain number of cents for every mile traveled and when the big Jonah balks it cuts into their pay check at a disastrous rate."

PITTSBURG IMPROVEMENTS.

The bridge carpenters on the western division of the Pittsburg road have been busily engaged all winter upon various improvements which come under the maintenance of way department and still have plenty of work of that character in sight. They have just completed the installation of two large water tanks at Washington, Ohio, making that one of the best watering stations on the line. These tubs are sixteen feet deep and twenty-two feet in diameter and are thirty feet from the ground, giving a strong pressure to the water which is drawn from them. The pipes leading from the tubs to the engine tanks are also larger than the old pipes and an ordinary engine tank can be filled in thirty seconds; formerly it required four to five minutes to fill the tanks. Another important improvement under way is a 15x27 foot interlocking tower at Dunkirk, Ohio, which will be a very fine affair. The piling for the false work at the Tippecanoe river bridge is being put in this week. This bridge will be a heavy double-track structure to correspond with the changed conditions of traffic. The work of placing the new bridge and the supports and abutments will be accomplished in a manner that will not in the least interfere with traffic on the road.

A woman has a right to be positive on matters which are matters of personal knowledge and experience. Every woman who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the womanly organs is positive as to its wonderful curative value, and confidently recommends it to similar sufferers.

Women who suffer from inflammation, ulceration, female weakness, or nervous diseases caused by disease of the womanly organs will find a complete cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prolapsus, and menorrhagia. and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "Glad I have not needed it for a few years past, but if I should have any return of the old trouble would surely try 'Favorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."

GROW CARELESS OF DANGER

"After a miner has handled dynamite for eight or ten years without a serious mishap it is a good idea to put him to doing something else about the works," said a gentleman of this city who has had a great deal of experience with high explosives. "The chances are 100 to 1 that his long immunity from accident has given him such a contempt for danger that he is an unconscious menace to everybody on the premises. He will do things that not only imperil his own life, but the lives of all his comrades. To give you an illustration, I once had an old Cornishman at work in a mine in which I was interested and had intrusted him with a general supervision of all the blasting. He had been handling dynamite for twenty years or more and was justly regarded as an expert. During that entire period he had never had an accident worth speaking of, and by degrees the care and vigilance that were responsible for his excellent record had worn away until he was beginning to entertain the delusion, common to all hands, that the danger of the stuff was very much exaggerated.

"One day I was passing through a cut where some blasting had been going on and noticed the old Cornishman hammering a drill into what seemed to be a boring in the rock. I asked him what he was doing and he told me coolly there was a cartridge in the hole that had failed to explode and he was just knockin' out the tamping to reprime it.' I was horrified, for at every blow he was liable to explode the dynamite, and I ordered him sternly to stop and never to repeat such a performance. The proper method would have been to have drilled a new hole near by and exploded the first charge with a second blast. He obeyed sullenly, grumbling to himself, and less than a month afterward was blown up while doing exactly the same thing. He lost his left arm at the shoulder, his left eye and part of his left ear. He also lost his contempt for dynamite, and when he finally emerged from the hospital I gave him back his former job. I never had a more scrupulously careful employe than he was from that time on. It seems a brutal thing to say, but there is nothing that does an old dynamite hand as much good as to get blown up once or twice."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Every conductor on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit railroad must now give a bond. Each man is backed for $500 by a surety company to guarantee his honesty. It costs the men $1 a year. The railroad company has been forced to such action by wholesale knocking down of fares.

To Whom This May Concern:

I have been a sufferer from rheumatism for over twenty years. I have tried everything almost that I could find and found no relief. About two months ago Mr. George Godfrey told me to take Wright's Rheumatic Remedy and it would surely cure me. I tried it and am now on my third bottle and find it has cured me. I cannot recommend your remedy Wright's Rheumatic Remedy too highly, and I wish to say to my friends, if you are suffering from rheumatism or kidney trouble, by all means use it.

I have lived in Fort Wayne since 1850 and am now clerking in Lehman's clothing house. I again say, if you have rheumatism, use Wright's Rheumatic Remedy.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Mar. 27, 1901.
Wright Medicine Co.,
Peru, Ind.

My Dear Sirs:—It is with pleasure I write you concerning your most valuable remedy, known as Wright's Rheumatic Remedy, the great Canadian cure.

I have been a sufferer from sciatic rheumatism in the very worst form for more than two years. I was at Mt. Clemens, Hot Springs and West Baden and found no relief whatsoever. I was entirely discouraged, as it laid me up bedfast most of the time and I could not move a limb. I had given up all hopes of recovery, when one of my employes insisted I should take your remedy. I did so, and after taking one and one-half bottles I was perfectly cured. I can walk straight and all my pains have left me and I am now in the best of health.

I cannot speak too highly of your remedies and anyone wishing to find out its merits can write me and I will be pleased to verify the above statement. Respectfully yours,

LOUIS A. CENTLIVRE,
President of the C. L. Centlivre Brewing Co.

HAVE THE BUFFALOES FADED.

A new organization has sprung into existence within the past few days that expects to have the ancient order of Buffaloes faded within a very short time. The new order was formed at the instigation of W. F. Draeter, of the Indiana Furniture company, and its sole purpose besides those fraternal and social is to room the new auditorium. The membership is entirely confined to traveling salesmen, and no outsiders need apply. Inside of two or three days at one establishment in the city twenty-five salesmen, representing outside business houses, became members of the order, and they were given a button, the grip, and received all the high signs and passwords. The sum of $25 was assessed for membership and as it is estimated that several thousand traveling salesmen visit Fort Wayne every three months it will be seen this will be a considerable source of revenue. The scheme has been taken up by other city firms, and there is competition as to who will initiate the largest number of candidates.

PREACHED ON PENANCE.

A constantly growing interest and congregations that fill the Cathedral to the very doors continue to characterize the series of mission services now in progress. Last evening Rev. Father Shyne, one of the Jesuit missionaries, delivered a strong sermon on confession, in which he set forth the Catholic doctrine of penance. Classes for instruction are held each evening, and about thirty non-Catholics are now receiving instructions preparatory to uniting with that church. The mission is by far the most successful of any held in this city for many years.

TAKING NEW TRADE MARK.

The Wayne Knitting mills has just adopted a new trade mark which will at once be registered in the patent office at Washington. The new design is for use on boys and girls' hosiery. It consists of the word "Pony" wrought in ornamental fashion, and associated with it is the picture of a boy in rough rider costume astride a prancing pony. Chapin & Denny are filing the trade mark.

FROM FAR-OFF CUBA.

Corporal George Downey, of Company H, Eleventh United States infantry, is in the city for a few days, the guest of his brother, C. S. Downey, of the Nickel Plate. Corporal Downey is off on a furlough and this is his first visit in Fort Wayne in ten years. His home it at Apache, Ariz., where his company was recruited, and his station is at Pinar del Rio, Cuba.

GO TO INDIANAPOLIS.

Thomas Lau, acting manager of the Fox bakery, and the traveling salesmen of that house, will go to Indianapolis tomorrow morning to attend a business meeting of the salesmen of the National Biscuit company of Indiana. The session will be held in the English hotel, and at its conclusion the men will enjoy a banquet and social session. About 100 salesmen will attend the meeting.

ATTENTION TEACHERS

For the meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers' association to be held at Anderson on April 4th, 5th and 6th, the WABASH will make a low round trip rate. If enough will go to justify, a special train will be run in each direction. Apply early to Superintendent Study or the Wabash ticket office.

"HE THAT BLOWETH

Not his own horn, the same shall not be blown."

Them's our sentiments. If you will make a brief call and grant us only five minutes of your valuable time, we will endeavor to "blow our horn," and convince you that we have the largest stock of HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS and the most complete line of GENERAL SHELF AND BUILDERS' HARDWARE shown in this city.

We also wish you to bear in mind that in our tinware department you can find about anything in that line that was ever conceived. But, if you shouldn't remember that there is nothing that cannot be made to order in our tinshop. Give us a trial.
